1. Exhibitor Compliance. The rules and regulations contained in the Official Big E Premium Book (including IAPE Code of Show Ring Ethics and ESE Code of Ethics) are the conditions under which all entries are accepted. Exhibitors are required to have read these Exhibitor Compliance carefully before making application for entries. A signed entry serves as an agreement to comply with all rules and regulations contained within this book and all other official Big E publications (including changes posted within our website). Incomplete (unsigned) entries will be returned with any accompanying payment.

2. Loss of Exhibits. Exhibits will be under the direction of Eastern States Exposition Management, who will exercise every reasonable care in the protection of exhibits. In no case will Eastern States Exposition or Management be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. Each exhibitor will be solely responsible for any loss, injury or damage to any animal; or loss, injury or damage done by or arising from any animal exhibited by him/her, and shall indemnify Eastern States Exposition against legal or other proceedings in regard thereto. All consumption of food/beverages in the Mallary Complex by exhibitors and their guests is done at the exhibitor’s risk.

3. Entries. A separate entry form is required for each exhibitor and/or herd unit for each breed. Online Entries: Access to the Eastern States Exposition online entry system is available at the Agriculture page of www.TheBigE.com and may be reproduced for your convenience. Faxed entries will be accepted and will be processed when a credit card number has been charged. METERED MAIL POSTMARK WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED AS PROOF OF DEADLINE COMPLIANCE. In the event the number of entries exceeds the allowed barn space capacity, entries will be accepted in the chronological order they were received. Refunds on cancelled entries are granted in extreme circumstances by the Director of Agriculture.

4. Initial Passes. Upon receipt and acceptance of entry, initial entry passes will be issued to the exhibitor. Passes are intended to provide initial entry and parking for people working directly with the animals and owners. Additional passes will be available from your superintendent.

5. Reduced Rate Tickets are available from the Agriculture Office after July 1 at $7 per ticket. We invite and encourage you to take advantage of this ticket savings. Please call (413)205-5011, requesting the Agriculture Office, or email a ticket request to aginfo@TheBigE.com.

6. Rule Violations. Violations within the show ring competition the decision of the judge is final in all cases—except where an error or deliberate misrepresentation is discovered. In the case of unintentional error brought about from placing being announced but before the end of the breed show, a correction of placing and corresponding premiums will be made by Management. If the error is not discovered until after the completion of the breed show, Management will make an effort to rectify the error but will not be held responsible for exhibitor unintentional error. If, in the opinion of Management, an exhibitor willfully violates any rules governing The Big E, all premiums/prizes won by him/her will be forfeited and he/she may be subject to such other penalties as Management deems appropriate. Other penalties will potentially involve inclusion in the National Show Ring Ethics infraction database.

7. Rule and Deadline Interpretation. The Management of Eastern States Exposition reserves the right to interpret all rules and regulations governing the show and to make such decisions as may be necessary for the successful conduct of the show. Such interpretations and decisions will be final. Questions regarding rule interpretations should be directed to the Agriculture & Education, Eastern States Exposition, 1305 Memorial Ave., West Springfield MA 01089, telephone (413)205-5011 or aginfo@TheBigE.com. Requests will receive prompt attention. Request for exceptions to any rule must be made in writing and form must accompany the entry form. This request is not grounds for a late entry. All entries must be made in accordance to the list dates to be accepted.

8. Graze. An exhibitor wishing to protest or appeal an action, condition or circumstance occurring during the show which he considers detrimental to his interests, the interests of his fellow exhibitors or those of the Exposition, may protest, complain or appeal to the Management at any time prior to the release hour for his exhibits, by plainly stating his appeal or protest in writing and attaching thereto a fee of $100, such fee to be refunded upon settlement of the claim in his/her favor but forfeited if the protest is not sustained. Protests questioning the competency or fairness of judges will not be entertained or condoned. In all cases of complaint, protest or appeal, the decision of the appropriate committee will be binding and final.

9. Valid Registration Certificates. The original registration certificate or association’s duplicate or computer printouts (NO PHOTOCOPIES) will be considered as proof of ownership and/or age and breeder of an entry. Electronic registration certificates are accepted and may be used by management as ownership verification. The ownership of an animal must appear on the certificate as it will be exhibited, or if owned in partnership, exhibited by one or more of the owners. In the case of an animal under one year of age, a photocopy or electronic image of the registration application with a registration number assigned to the animal or association may be presented if the actual registration paper is not processed by show date. We will not accept registration transfers after the show has started. It is the exhibitor’s responsibility to be sure animals are registered properly according to their respective breed association rules. Junior exhibitors should check rules under their specific breed for ownership deadlines. Please make sure papers are with animals.

10. TATTOOS. For all breeds requiring tattoos as a means of permanent identification, it is the exhibitor’s responsibility to be sure tattoos are clear and easily readable. Animals with questionable tattoos will not be allowed to show. Exception: Llamas and Alpacas must have microchips.

11. Exhibitor and Breeder. An exhibitor must be the owner or member of a partnership or syndicate. Animals owned in partnership or syndicate must be entered in an individual class of the show under the partnership or syndicate’s name. In the group classes, partnership or syndicate animals may be entered and exhibited under the name of one of the co-owners, but must be entered in all classes in the same manner. For the purpose of meeting the requirements in all group classes, for premier breeder and exhibitor, and defining numbers of an entry, an exhibitor is further defined as those members of an immediate family residing on one farm and where the herd is one unit. Exhibitors are required to list persons qualifying as family members of one unit or all members of a syndicate on the entry form.

12. Substitutions. An entry may be substituted within or between classes after the entry deadline provided the owner and/or partner and/or owner making the original entry is owner and/or part owner of the entry being substituted. (See Special Rules in Dairy Goat & Sheep section for exception.) As described in the definition of exhibitor and breeder, substitutions may be made among different members of the same family on the same farm. There will be no substitutions between breeds. Use the substitution form located on the website.

13. Inspection Procedure. All gates are closed to livestock entrance or exit between 11pm and 6am. Please plan to arrive only during the times listed in each show section, unless otherwise stated.

1. All inspections will be done by official Animal Health Inspectors or Massachusetts State Veterinarian (as AHI). They have the final word of determination and Management will support their decisions.

2. Multiple AHI personnel will be on hand during the pre-determined arrival hours and will remain until all animals have been checked. Specific inspectors will be in charge of specific areas, but all inspectors are qualified to inspect all species of animals and may be called to additional areas as needed.

3. Health papers and official interstate health papers issued from their state of origin, and meeting MDAR Fair Animal Health Requirements must accompany animals! This means the driver or exhibitor must be in possession of the papers and remain with the animals during the entire inspection process.

4. Arrive at Gate 1
   a. Show health papers, if requested to do so.
   b. If the gate person requests, please wait patiently until directed to proceed to the next point.
   c. Proceed to Gate 10

5. Show health papers, if requested to do so.

6. Be prepared for staff to compare the number of animals being transported with the number of animals listed on the papers. All animals being transported must be accounted for on the health papers or driver will be asked to leave without unloading.

7. Please make contact with your Superintendent before attempting to unload ANY animals. No animals may unload before Superintendent approval. Each animal MUST pass inspection before entering the Mallary Complex or tie-out stalls.
g. (Bovine, Goat, Cameld) Unload as directed by Superintendent.

1. AHI will inspect each animal as they unload. AHI initials on the health papers prove that animal has passed inspection and may be penned.
2. If there is a waiting line, animal safety and welfare is of utmost concern. Weather (heat and humidity) may dictate the animals’ need to unload before the inspection process can happen. In this case, the animals will proceed to the holding pens on the east or east alcove of the Mallary Complex. There, animals may unload and wait in relative safety and comfort until their turn to be inspected. No animal may enter the Mallary Complex before they have passed inspection.

h. (Sheep, Swine) Unload as directed by Superintendent.

1. AHI will inspect each animal as they unload. AHI initials on the health papers prove that animal has passed inspection and may be penned.
2. If there is a waiting line, animal safety and welfare is of utmost concern. Weather (heat and humidity) may dictate the animals’ need to unload before the inspection process can happen. In this case, the animals will proceed to the holding pens on the east or east alcove of the Mallary Complex. There, animals may unload and wait in relative safety and comfort until their turn to be inspected. No animal may enter the Mallary Complex before they have passed inspection.

i. Any animal not passing inspection will be asked to leave the grounds. If leaving would induce unfair hardship on the driver or exhibitor, the animals would proceed directly to the quarantine area directly outside Gate 10 and remain in the quarantine area for the duration of their stay. A reasonable amount of bedding will be provided in the quarantine area; water and electricity are available. Animal care is the responsibility of the exhibitor. Said animal may not be exhibited.

j. Failure to comply with the Arrival and Inspection Procedure will constitute an infraction of the General Rules and Regulations in which case the exhibitor and/or driver and all animals listed within that entry will be asked to leave Eastern States Exposition premises. Arrivals and Departures. On rare occasions, extensions to our published Arrival/Departure times are allowed. (Example: in case of family emergency or to accommodate attendance at other livestock expositions.) To request exemption to the published Arrival/Departure times, a request must be made to the Director of Agriculture and Education. The Director of Agriculture and Education will be contacted by security and will handle all appropriate emergency situations.

15. RELEASES. All release documents will be issued from the Superintendent’s Office. Exhibitors who remove one or more animals without a release will forfeit all premiums won. For times and dates, please see each specific show. Premiums will be forfeited by the owner if exhibitor of a show string chooses to leave early.

16. SHARPS DISPOSAL. Any syringes/needles found in the garbage or manure pits require a biohazard team to be brought in for management and disposal. The cost of this situation management will be deducted from the following year’s available premiums in the barn at the time of inspection. Disposal containers are available in Mallary offices, the milk room and several places throughout the barn. If a container is missing or full, please notify the Agriculture Office immediately. General Rules and Regulations

Eastern States Exposition

Show Ring Policy and Code of Ethics

Eastern States Exposition is one of the premier livestock shows in the Northeast. As an elite venue, Eastern States Exposition has a responsibility for maintaining a first-class image of the ethics in its livestock shows. The purpose of regulations concerning ethical practices is to maintain a positive international reputation and to ensure good animal husbandry is on display for all spectators. Eastern States Exposition seeks to promote good animal husbandry, attractive barn exhibits and a high-quality show for exhibitors and spectators.

Eastern States Exposition endorses the PDCA and the IAFE Code of Ethics in all livestock shows and gives full cooperative support to the judges and the respective National Breed Associations. It recognizes that certain practices are necessary in the proper care and management of livestock in the course of moving livestock to and between shows in order to keep them in a sound, healthy condition so they might be presented in the show ring in a natural, normal condition.

To detect any unethical practices, show management, at the discretion of the Ethics Committee, may use technologies for testing body fluids like milk or blood or other new examination techniques like ultrasound at anytime while the animals are on Eastern States Exposition grounds. By making entry in any exhibition, an exhibitor consents to the collection of specimens, e.g. milk, blood, etc., and photographic or direct examination of the animal. Furthermore, by making an entry in any exhibition, the owner and/or exhibitor, as well as any individual handling or fitting their animal, agrees to supply proper animal and personal identification when asked by ethics personnel or show management.

The following are examples of practices or procedures that are violations of the Eastern States Exposition Show Ring Policy and Code of Ethics, which include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Misrepresenting the age, lineage/breed and/or milking status of the animal for which the class is entered.
2. Treating an animal without a verifiable veterinary need for that treatment, internally or externally, for the purpose of improving their appearance. Except:label all drugs must be used under the direction of a licensed veterinarian. Evidence of same shall be provided in writing if requested.
3. In dairy cattle, using a device to artificially create or enhance the udder crease.
4. Icing of animal for non-medical purposes.
5. Administering an injected or applied anesthetic to alter the carriage of the tail or other body parts.
6. Surgically or unethically inserting any matter under the skin or into any body cavity to change the natural contour or appearance of the animal's body.
7. Criticizing or interfering with the judge, show management or other exhibitors while in the Show Ring, on show grounds or other conduct detrimental to the breed or the show.
8. Challenging, threatening, criticizing or interfering with an Ethics Committee member or volunteer appointed by show management to monitor the animals on exhibit on the show grounds.
9. Failing to provide proper/accurate animal and/or personal identification when asked by ethics personnel or show management.
10. Adding real or artificial hair or hair-like substances to any part of the animal, except for false switches.
11. Excessively manipulating topline and/or tailhead hair in dairy cattle, beyond 1 1/2 inches from the skin.
12. *Should a topline violation occur (i.e. adding real or artificial hair or hair-like substances or if topline hair is in excess of 1 1/2 inches): the Director of Agriculture and Education or their appointed agent shall inform the exhibitor that if they choose to enter the Show Ring, after being informed of such a topline violation, an ethics violation will have occurred.
14. Unsportsmanlike conduct on the part of owner or their representative(s).
15. Improper fitting practices, such as over filling and over bagging.
possible. As soon as possible thereafter, an ethics hearing will be scheduled. Eastern States Exposition shall take reasonable steps to maintain the anonymity of the accused individual(s) and/or animal throughout the enforcement process.

30. An Eastern States Exposition representative will present the evidence, while maintaining individual confidentiality, at a hearing of the Ethics Committee. Generally, the Ethics Committee will consist of eight people: seven livestock committee members, including representation of at least three different species, and moderated by the Eastern States Exposition Director of Agriculture and Education. Ethics Committee members will serve as a jury to determine whether the accused individual(s) is/are guilty of a violation and, if so, what penalty is appropriate for the violation. A guilty verdict must be by a 2/3 majority of the Ethics Committee.

31. Promptly after the Ethics Committee renders its decision, the Director of Agriculture and Education will inform the accused the determinations of the Ethics Committee. It is the accused individual(s) responsibility to notify any other owners of the determination by the Ethics Committee.

32. If found guilty of a violation of the Show Ring Code of Ethics, the penalty for the individual, the exhibitor, the representative and/or the animal may range from a letter of reprimand to being barred for three years from participating at Eastern States Exposition. The identity of the animal(s), exhibitors and/or representatives that are barred will be kept confidential to the extent reasonably possible.

33. An animal found in violation of the Show Ring Code of Ethics will forfeit any premiums, their placing will be removed and the animal and/or owner/representative must observe any penalty placed upon them.

34. If the individual, the exhibitor and/or their representatives are guilty of repeated violations at Eastern States Exposition events, they and/or the animal could be barred from participating at Eastern States Exposition for life.

35 Barring an exhibitor or representative and/or an individual will result in animals owned fully or in partnership by that individual, farm and/or affiliated entity not being allowed to enter, exhibit or sell in Eastern States Exposition shows and/or sales. The barred individual will also be ineligible to be present in the Show Ring, and/or serve any other official capacity for the length of the bar. Any individual barred for an ethics violation at any point of time (regardless of timing or length of bar) must be approved by Eastern States Exposition’s Ethics Committee prior to being nominated to serve on any official committee or as an official Judge.
