July1, 2023

Dear applicant,

The Fair Board and I have joy that you are thinking of taking the steps to fulfill your dream of becoming the Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo Queen for 2024.

This competition is held annually for young ladies that feel they are ready to carry the title of Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo Queen. There are multiple categories that will have awards but there will be one young lady at the end of the evening crowned. The 2024 Queen will travel across the Northwest for parades, rodeos, community events, and more. The job of the queen is to represent her community to the best of her ability and invite people to the fair and rodeo. As the 2024 Queen comes to a successful end to her year, she will receive a $750 educational scholarship to go to the educational establishment as she chooses. We look forward to getting to know you through the competition.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Amanda Chambers
Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo Queen Coordinator

Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo Queen Contest

EXPECTATIONS

Upon winning the title of the Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo Queen, the titleholder becomes the official representative for the Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo; and as such is responsible to present the sport of high moral and ethical character and humane treatment of animals.

We wish to point out that this is not a beauty contest. It is a completion, which recognizes several attributes such as horsemanship skills, personality, public speaking, and appearance. Therefore, as our official representative the Queen is under the responsibility to act, speak and dress according to the esteem that the title deserves anytime she is in the public eye. As riding and horsemanship skills are a key promotion of the sport of rodeo, we encourage you to strive to always continue improving those skills.

Public speaking is essential to the role of the Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo Queen, I agree to continue to grow those skills.

The Queen will be responsible for the loss or damage to the Queens crowns, serapes, and chaps up to $1,000.

Official duties and appearances must be approved by the Queen coordinator, I agree to keep in close contact to accomplish this.

I understand that during my reign I will have chaperones attending events with me and I will abide by that chaperone.

I agree the official duties of the Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo Queen come first throughout my year of reign over other activities I may be involved in such as vacations, rodeo, school sports, summer sports, WAHSET/OHSET and work schedules.

I agree to live with my parent(s) and/or legal guardian(s) throughout my year of reign. I will not live with a significant other (male/female) and will not be involved in an intimate living relationship.

I understand that no significant other (male/female), who I am in a relationship with, shall attend events that I am representing the Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo. I will not travel to any appearances with him/her no matter what the situation is. I shall remain unmarried, observe a high standard of moral and ethical behavior and set a good example to the public and future competitors.

If I possess a personal website or social media profile (i.e., Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Snap Chat, and etc.) I agree the material contained therein will be maintained to reflect a positive image of me, and my position as Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo Queen.

As the titleholder, the Queen will be expected to always conduct herself properly. Drinking alcoholic beverages, use of drugs and smoking are prohibited and will not be tolerated while representing the Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo. Remember that a first impression is most often the most memorable and that others will judge your appearance at all times.

The Queen must be careful when choosing attire when not in uniform, remembering that she constantly represents the Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo.

The Queen and family will keep family/personal matters private and not on display.

Avoid cell phone use during any event that I am a guest while representing the Klickitat County Fair and Rodeo. Phones are not to be carried in your clothing pockets at events.

As Queen, I will not engage in gossip or lying, making defamatory or slanderous comments concerning others, exhibit racial insensitivity, use inappropriate language, or participate in other conduct unbecoming of my title.

Maintain a positive attitude throughout my year of reign.

I agree to never be seen with curlers or curls pinned in my hair. Fingernails will be clean and maintained.

I understand I must show up on time to official events fully dressed in approved Queen attire. Making sure clothes are clean, pressed, hats cleaned, shaped and boots cleaned.

I agree chewing gum while in public at events including riding horses in parades and rodeos is not acceptable.

Encourage others to participate in future Queen contests.

The Queen is required to wear the items the Fair Board provided at all times when appropriate, which include crown, buckle, sash, serape and chaps.

The Queen will attend Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo fair board meetings in January, July, and August to update the fair board of her activities. We encourage our Queen to attend more meetings, if possible, your input is important to the Klickitat County Fair Board.

As Queen, she will be available for the two weeks preceding the Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo for daily to multiple daily appearances for luncheons, radio spots, and guest appearances. She also must, of course, attend all official functions during the Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo.

During the Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo the Queen's horse will be stalled in a corner box stall in Barn A or Barn B. Your horse will need to be stalled when not in use from Tuesday evening until 5pm Sunday evening. It is your responsibility for your horses' stall to be cleaned morning and night. Your horse must always have clean water and hay available in their stall. Your stall shall be decorated appropriately with pictures and posters. Please check in with the Horse Superintendent (Erika Beasley) to make sure you have the correct stall and are decorating according to her rules in the barn.

The Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo Queen agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Klickitat County Fair Board and all rodeo committees, their officers, agents, or employees from against all loss of expense by reason of liability imposed by law for damages due to bodily injury. This includes death at any time resulting from or sustained by any person or persons and/or damages to property, including loss of use thereof arising out of or in damage to property due to any negligence.

The Queen represents she has (a) read all rules and regulations, (b) received a complete copy of all rules and regulation, (c) otherwise been fully advised as to any and all written and/or verbal amendments, if any to rules and/or regulations, (d) understands each and every rule and/or regulation, and (e) had the full opportunity to present all questions regarding rules and regulations, and such questions have been fully answered.

KLICKITAT COUNTY FAIR & RODEO QUEEN CONTEST

PAGEANT

The pageant will be held on one day. Horsemanship will be held in the Joan Frey indoor arena located at the Klickitat County Fairgrounds, and the speech, personal interview, modeling will be held at the Goldendale American Legion. There will be three or more judges. Contestants will be judged individually on horsemanship, speech, impromptu question, personal interview, and modeling. The non-point earning categories are photogenic, and sportsmanship. You will meet the judges before the horsemanship begins.

Horsemanship: This part of the competition includes four sections: rail work, reining pattern, presentation run, and a draw horse presentation run. This will start at 9:00am on the south side of the Joan Frey indoor arena in the gravel, with your horses tied to the trailer but not yet saddled.

Judges will be looking for:

- ❖ Equitation – your ability to ride correctly, balanced, relaxed body, position of hands, feet, and seat.
- ❖ Pattern – how well you execute the pattern given to you, correct leads, stops, pivots, speed changes.
- ❖ Presentation run – speed control, wave, and smile.
- ❖ Draw horse – sometimes you have to jump ride horses due to unforeseen circumstances. They will be watching how you handle change, and how you control your nerves.
- ❖ Be prepared for questions pertaining to horse health, tack, rodeo events, rodeo terminology and more.

Personal Interview: This will be held at Goldendale American Legion in the meeting room at 3:30pm. Each interview will be a maximum of 30 minutes per contestant.

Judges will be looking for:

- ❖ Knowledge of the Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo, county events held during the fair, NPRA rodeo, current news local and worldwide.
- ❖ How you present yourself, smile, personality, poise, and appearance
- ❖ Your ability to handle stressful situations with confidence, enthusiasm, and ambition.
- ❖ How well you can hold a conversation, correct use of the English language, and maintaining eye contact.

Speech & Impromptu Question: This part of the competition will be held at the Goldendale American Legion in the banquet room following your modeling outfit. Speeches will be given while guests are watching supporting and eating dinner. Impromptu question will be asked at the end of each contestant's speech, each contestant will be asked the same question.

Judges will be looking for:

- ❖ Delivery of your speech.
- ❖ How well you have memorized it and how well you think on your feet.
- ❖ Your speech must be 2-3 minutes long.
- ❖ How you present yourself, smile, personality, poise, eye contact, and appearance.
- ❖ Be creative and have fun!

Modeling: This portion of the competition will be held at the Goldendale American Legion starting at 6:00pm. You will model your outfit while you make your way to the stage for your speech.

Judges will be looking for:

- ❖ How your personality, individuality and creativity shine as you walk and show off your outfit. Your posture, smile, eye contact, interaction with the crowd and turns.
- ❖ Your appearance needs to be clean and neat; this includes your clothes from the tip of your hat to the tip of your boots, your hair, makeup, and nails.

General Judging: They will be watching how you conduct yourself from the time the day starts to when it ends; that includes informal and formal judging. They will be looking for your sense of humor, positive attitude, your ability to handle stress/ nerves, ability to adapt. They will be paying close attention to how you speak, your grammar, and your ability to communicate with everyone of different ages and backgrounds you are in contact with that day. Make sure to be prompt on your time for each section of judging.

Scoring: There are a total of 600 points available to be awarded to each contestant. A minimum of 300 points must be met to be considered. If there is only one contestant competing the rule of 300 minimum points still stands. After judging is complete, each judge will place their sheets into a sealed manilla envelope and sign the back flap. The Queen coordinator will gather the envelopes from each judge and give them to an auditor for counting. Each contestant will be judged for Most Photogenic. The Most Photogenic competition will be based on Facebook likes of each individual picture posted to the official Queen page and a voting drop box will be placed in the fair office to be counted as well. The Queen coordinator, chosen fair board members and judges will select a winner for the Sportsmanship award. No points are given for these awards. Ties for category winners (horsemanship, speech, personal interview, and modeling) will be broken by adding the silent judges scores. The contestant with the highest overall score will be crowned the next Klickitat County Fair & Rodeo Queen. The contestant receiving the second highest score will become the first runner up. Ties for overall high scores will be broken by adding the silent judges scores for the contestants who are tied. No scoring sheets will be posted or given to contestants. Judges' comments will be made available, if there are any, approximately one-week post competition.

Outfit Requirements: Each contestant must supply their own outfits for the competition and tack for their horses. During the horsemanship competition each contestant must wear full western attire, a plain white long sleeve button up western shirt with a collar, shaped cowboy hat, pull on western boots (no lace up, "fat baby" or fashion heels), belt, and dark wash jeans. No chaps, gloves, crowns, or sashes are allowed to be worn. During your speech and personal interview note cards and/or props are not allowed. For personal interview wear a full western attire outfit that shows your style and personality. This includes jeans, pants, cowboy hat, boots, long sleeve western button up shirt with collar, or dress (no leather dress or formal dress permitted). During modeling, speech, and impromptu question, the contestant must wear a cowboy hat and boots. They may wear a leather or formal dress for this section of the competition, but contestants will not be penalized if they are not wearing one. Each contestant must supply the Queen coordinator with a 1–2-minute detailed description of your modeling outfit to be read while you model and make your way to the stage.
