The Land of Yes!

BUENA PARK IS A city built and focused on family. From Walter and Cordelia Knott welcoming travelers onto their family farm, to Porto's Cuban family heritage being celebrated in every bite, to the hundreds of families who will breathlessly cheer on their medieval knight or swashbuckling pirate tonight — Buena Park is the perfect getaway for those young and young at heart.

A unique combination of unmatched geographic access within Southern California and diversity of people, experiences, and possibilities infuses this city with a welcoming ease and warmth from both a convenience and budgetary standpoint. Buena Park is accessible in every way, and genuine in the most meaningful way.

This is the place to let go and give yourself permission to play. Buena Park invites you to surrender to the power of yes: to say “yes” to everything simply because you can. Yes to screaming coasters. Yes to knights in tights. Yes to waterslide wedgies. Yes to nights filled with performing pirates, cotton candy cocktails, and laughs that never stop. Give into your sweet tooth cravings, gloriously guilty pleasures, and thrill-seeking tendencies with reckless abandon. Because in Buena Park the answer to every question is... yes!

TIPS FOR A GREAT SOCIAL TRIP

STAY SAFE

Bring (and use!) sun essentials like sunscreen, hats, sunglasses, and refillable water bottles.

DRIVING

Freeways get busy during rush hours – generally 7:30 a.m. to 9 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. on weekdays. Save some time by using carpool/HOV lanes, which are available for vehicles with two or more passengers. They're usually the far-left lane, designated with signage and a white diamond symbol.

PARKING

With so many cool attractions and so many people enjoying them, parking can be crowded at popular restaurants and attractions. We recommend checking websites or calling ahead to find out where to park, and plan to spend a little extra on parking. Having a guaranteed spot is worthwhile.

THE EXPERTS

COLETTE AND SCOTT STOHLER

The Stohlers are the traveling twosome behind the sightseeing website, blog, Instagram, and Youtube channel Roamaroo (roamaroo.com, @roamaroo). When they're not jet setting, the Stohlers are travel television hosts — you may have seen them on the Disney Channel, Travel Channel, or BBC.

MINDY MOSER

A Disney and amusement park expert with over 90 visits to Knott's and Disneyland combined, Moser is the brains behind the travel and cooking website Mommy Mouse Clubhouse (mommymouseclubhouse.com, @mommyhouseclubhouse), where the foodie and mother to three boys shares her tips for families visiting Southern California and more.

The Silver Bullet ride at Knott's

DAY ONE

Spend your first day at Knott's Berry Farm in Buena Park, where the whole family can enjoy rides, shows, food and other attractions in four themed areas.

MM: "The great thing about this amusement park is that there really is something for everyone, from the mind-blowing thrill rides, the fun-themed Camp Snoopy, to the delicious food you can try."

CSS: "Knott's has always been one of our favorite places to adventure in California. It has dozens of rides, including some epic rollercoasters like GhostRider and Silver Bullet."

While there, fuel up at Mrs. Knott's Chicken Dinner Restaurant, an 90-year-old tradition.

MM: "A staple and a must-do when you visit. I highly recommend getting the complete chicken dinner...and my favorite, boysenberry pie for dessert!"

Next to Knott's Berry Farm, cool off at the newly expanded California-themed Knott's Soak City, Orange County's largest outdoor water park. For dinner, the dark fairy-tale themed pub The Cauldron Spirits & Brews is a must, as its spooky atmosphere casts a spell on guests of all ages with hearty home-cooked comfort food and specialty drinks. Costumes are welcomed and encouraged (but especially in October).

Hidden room at The Cauldron Spirits & Brews

DAY TWO

For breakfast, indulge at the award-winning Porto's Bakery & Café.

CSS: This Cuban bakery has a coffee bar, perfect pastries [above], and sumptuous sandwiches. We highly recommend their signature Cuban sandwich - the ham and cheese are cooked to absolute perfection!

Then head over to the Disneyland Resort®, just five miles away from Buena Park. In the evening, watch an Angels baseball game at Angel Stadium, or a Ducks hockey game at the Honda Center. Heading back to Buena Park, take on a crew of swashbuckling buccaneers and a four-course feast at the Pirates Dinner Adventure show.

MM: "The pirates do a great job involving the audience. My son was chosen to ride in a boat around the stage while another pirate sat in his seat and began to eat his dinner. It was hilarious!"

KingChang

Medieval Times

DAY THREE

It wouldn't be a SoCal visit without some beach time! Start your day by choosing your own cuisine adventure in Buena Park's Koreatown neighborhood. Then pack your sun essentials for sunbathing, surfing, and shopping in nearby Huntington Beach, just 10 miles south of Buena Park.

When the sun goes down, the fun starts up at dinner theaters in Buena Park. For more fun family-oriented fare, cheer on your favorite knight and watch actual jousting while you feast at Medieval Times Dinner & Tournament.

MM: "[Before the show] peek at the horses as they prepare for their performance in the indoor stables. It is so fun to see these majestic animals up close!"

Couples will love Beach Boulevard Club, a speakeasy bar with live piano entertainment and a discreet lounge reminiscent of 1920s Prohibition.

DAY FOUR

With OC's status as an international shopping mecca, no trip here is complete without visiting some of the renowned shopping and entertainment centers.

Check out all three stories of The Source OC, an open-air shopping center with dozens of predominantly Korean boutique businesses and hours of activities for all ages. A unique and underappreciated gem in Buena Park, The Source has some of the best eats and attractions in the city. Within the complex, try Monday to Sunday Cafe for beverages and brunch. Their menu is simple and small but oh so delicious. You must try their signature French toast topped with fresh fruit, a drizzle of maple syrup, and light and fluffy whipped cream. Also noteworthy is their avocado toast, bacon cheese galette and for those hot summer nights their strawberry matcha shaved ice will surely cool you off and satisfy your sweet cravings.

For more active offerings within The Source OC, adults will love playing simulated golf and baseball at Olympic Golf Zone, while younger kids can adventure at the creative indoor playground PlayPie. Hungry after all the action? Try any restaurant you see for excellent food — you can't go wrong with any in the complex. If you seek upscale retail brands and sophisticated dining, head to South Coast Plaza, a global shopping destination 20 minutes south of Buena Park in Costa Mesa. The three-story mall is the largest shopping center on the West Coast, with over 250 extraordinary boutiques.

DAY FIVE

For some vitamin sea, venture 25 miles south of Buena Park to the Balboa Peninsula in Newport Beach for endless activities at the boardwalk, two piers, and surrounding beaches. Take the ferry to charming Balboa Island, or spot sea life on a whale watching cruise at Newport Landing.

On your way back to Buena Park, take in Clark Regional Park and the free tour of Knott's Independence

Hall, an exact replica of the original in Pennsylvania, but without the long lines. For good food and tunes, end your trip with dinner at Rock & Brews.

CSS: "This restaurant, created by Gene Simmons and Paul Stanley of KISS, is always a rocking good time. It has fantastic barbeque, hamburgers, and wings, while also offering healthy options. The main reason to visit: it's a beer lover's dream with over 50 craft beers from around the world."

Thrilling Theme Parks

From roller coasters and water parks to magical castles and beloved cartoon characters, the possibilities are endless for all ages.

KNOTT'S BERRY FARM

8039 Beach Blvd., Buena Park
(714) 220-5200, knotts.com

The iconic 57-acre theme park boasts attractions and entertainment in four themed areas inspired by California's history. Classic attractions like the Timber Mountain Log Ride and the Calico Mine Ride are still guest favorites today while attractions like HangTime, the first dive coaster in California, thrill locals and tourists around the world.

Visit Snoopy and his friends, take on gravity-defying rides, stroll through Ghost Town, and enjoy all-day entertainment that changes with each season (see calendar of events). Don't forget to indulge in some of the park's dozens of boysenberry-themed treats — Knott's is the birthplace of the boysenberry, after all.

PRO TIPS

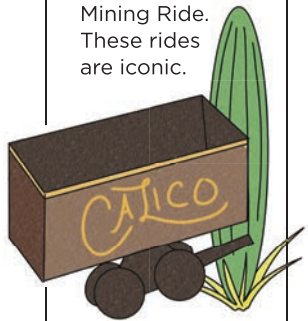

Check out O.C. native and travel blogger Jill Parkin's five strategies for visiting Knott's—she and her family have gone over 100 times!

Jill Parkin is the creative mind behind the lifestyle blog Sandy Toes & Popsicles, where she shares ideas for parents on how to travel with children, cook, craft, and celebrate every day. sandytoesandpopsicles.com; @popsicleblog

Ride the Timber Mountain Log Ride and Calico Mining Ride. These rides are iconic.

Visit Calico Ghost Town. This is the oldest section of Knott's and full of history. If you see a cowboy or one of the townspeople of Calico, ask them to tell you a little bit about the history.

A must: get a slice of boysenberry pie at the Ghost Town Bakery, Mrs. Knott's Chicken Dinner Restaurant or Ghost Town Grill, since boysenberries were created here.

Check out the renovated Walter Knott Theater, where seasonal shows like Snoopy ice skating are top-notch entertainment.

If you are brave enough to ride HangTime, do it! It's the first dive coaster in California, and towers over 150 feet with a beyond vertical drop. Yikes!

KNOTT'S SOAK CITY

8200 Beach Blvd., Buena Park
(714) 220-5200, knotts.com/soak-city

Next door to Knott's Berry Farm sits Knott's Soak City, a separately gated, 15-acre water park. Soak City boasts 23-speed, tube, and body slides including: Shore Break, featuring six different waterslide experiences; the 750,000-gallon Tidal Wave Bay wave pool; the one-third mile Sunset River; family rafting at The Wedge, and the three-story Beach House, featuring 200 water guns, nozzles, sprayers, and other interactive surprises.

The littlest swimmers will enjoy the Gremmie Lagoon, a hands-on water playground with an interactive octopus and miniature submarine. The water park is open select dates late-May through mid-September.

DISNEYLAND® RESORT

1313 S. Harbor Blvd., Anaheim
(714) 781-4565, disneyland.disney.go.com

Just 5 miles from Buena Park, the Disneyland Resort is gearing up for its 70th Anniversary celebration in 2025, featuring a host of new attractions and entertainment. One of the highlights will be “Walt Disney - A Magical Life,” an extraordinary new show at the Main Street Opera House, where an audio-animatronic Walt Disney will captivate audiences by sharing his incredible journey. Guests can also dive into Tiana’s Bayou Adventure, a fresh musical escapade inspired by The Princess and the Frog. This new attraction invites visitors to encounter beloved characters while preparing for a lively Mardi Gras celebration, complete with thrilling surprises and an exhilarating drop. Experience the magic that will certainly make you feel that you’re at “the happiest place on earth!”

PRO TIPS

Disney enthusiast Mindy Moser shares five ways to maximize your visit.

Mindy Moser is the brains behind the travel and cooking website Mommy Mouse Clubhouse. The foodie and mother to three boys is a Disney and amusement park expert — she boasts over 90 theme park visits! mommymouseclubhouse.com; @mommymouseclubhouse

Get there before rope drop. Arrive 30 minutes before the park's scheduled opening to allow time to get through security and enter the park. It's also fun to schedule an early character meal and enjoy Main Street U.S.A. with only a few people!

Make your park reservations early. Visiting either of Disney's parks requires both a valid ticket and a park reservation. Plan your visit far in advance, purchase your tickets, and make park reservations as soon as you have decided when to go. Then you are guaranteed entrance into the park, even during busy times of the year.

Use mobile ordering for food. All you have to do is open the Disneyland app, select your restaurant and a pick-up time slot, order your food, and pay. Pick up your food when you receive a notification and you're ready to go!

Use the Rider Switch option. If your little ones can't go on certain rides, one adult can wait with the nonrider(s) while the rest of the party enjoys the ride. When the riders return, the adult that stayed back can go to the front of the line with up to two riders. Talk to the cast member at the entrance of the attraction first to see if it's available!

Take a break. Remember that your Disneyland vacation is still a vacation. One of my favorite tips is to take a break in the middle of the day. We go back to the hotel for a nap, a swim, or just to relax. It makes our time at the parks so much more enjoyable.

NEWPORT BEACH 20 miles from Buena Park

Newport Beach is a comprehensive seaside escape, home to the largest recreational harbor on the West Coast, over 20 named beaches, 10 miles of shoreline, and glamorous locals. The beaches along the Balboa Peninsula are especially appealing to families and casual swimmers, while surfers and spectators will enjoy infamously challenging waves at The Wedge point break.

Marina Park's sheltered waters and nautical-themed playground are perfect for smaller swimmers, while the peninsula's two historic piers and boardwalk feature dozens of shopping and dining options. Don't miss the Ferris wheel and vintage arcade games at the Balboa Fun Zone, or the five-minute ferry ride and overall charm of Balboa Island (the Original Banana Stand's iconic desserts got the television treatment on Netflix's Arrested Development). South of the Balboa area, the Corona del Mar and Crystal Cove State beaches offer breathtaking cliff views and tide pools for exploring.

Parking: Paid lots, metered, and off street

LAGUNA BEACH 29 miles from Buena Park

Laguna Beach is an artist's haven with stunning scenery and home to some of the loveliest coastal views in Southern California. The city's seven miles of sand include Heisler Park Reserve, which boasts beautiful vistas (especially at sunset) and a paved path to stroll on. Shaw's Cove and Treasure Island Beach are perfect for tide pool exploring and snorkeling, while the iconic Pirate's Tower at Victoria Beach makes an enchanting photo backdrop (bathrooms are located at nearby Treasure Island Beach). Main Beach offers classic seaside activities like beach volleyball, basketball, and waves ideal for bodyboarding, plus it's literally across the street from Laguna's vibrant and eclectic downtown.

Parking: metered and off street.

Newport Landing Whale Watching
Marvel at migrating whales and their friends on this coastal cruise that's available year-round. With one of the largest marine protected parks just outside of Newport Bay, whales and dolphins of all types can be viewed as soon as you leave the bay. 309 Palm St., Newport Beach, (949) 675-0551, newportwhales.com

Parks & Recreation

Discover beautiful and expansive Orange County with these priceless (or close to it) outdoor adventures.

Clark Regional Park

Fullerton Arboretum

The 104-acre Clark Regional Park (8800 Rosecrans Ave., Buena Park) offers a variety of activities for the entire family. Visitors can go far back in time at the Clark Interpretive Center, which houses tons of ice age fossils including a 9-million-year-old baleen whale skeleton. Kids can let off steam at the children's playground areas.

Boisseranc Park (7520 Dale St., Buena Park) also offers a wide range of free and fun activities in the summertime. Pack a picnic and enjoy a live concert from local artists and cover bands or stay a little later for family-friendly Dive-in Movies.

Continue your outdoor education at the Fullerton Arboretum (7900 Associated Rd., Fullerton), the county's largest botanical garden. Kids (and kids at heart) are encouraged to touch and explore at the Sniff n' Seek Garden and the Weird and Wonderful Do-Touch Garden.

Nestled among a grove of heritage oak and sycamore trees, the 491-acre

Irvine Regional Park (1 Irvine Park Rd., Orange) is home to walking trails, the OC Zoo, and a variety of wildlife. Another great stop for families is at Great Park (8000 Great Park Blvd., Irvine). The Kids Rock Playground teaches about the water cycle and offers plenty of climbing opportunities and water misters that are much needed on a hot day. And if you've ever wanted to ride in a hot air balloon, a ride in the iconic orange Great Park Balloon is a must (and completely free!). Though it's technically not a hot air balloon — it's filled with environmentally-friendly helium — the balloon lifts riders 400 feet into the air for a 360-degree view of Orange County.

Got some city kids in your crew? Take them to the Centennial Farm (88 Fair Dr., Costa Mesa) at the OC Fair and Event Center. This three-acre working farm was designed to teach youth about agriculture and its importance in daily life. Visit the fruit and vegetable gardens, then meet the pigs, chickens, cattle, and goats that make their homes there.

The Best Buys

We asked top Orange County stylist Shauna Jackson for the lowdown on the quintessential O.C. look. Check out her tips on where to find surf style, luxury brands, vintage gear and more.

DOWNTOWN IS LOOKING UP

Stay close to home at Buena Park Downtown (8308 On the Mall, Buena Park), which offers 1.2 million square feet of affordable shopping options, restaurants, and entertainment within walking distance of Knott's Berry Farm. Find favorites like DSW Shoes, TJ Maxx, and Ross Dress for Less.

Next to Disneyland® Resort but free of admission, Downtown Disney® District (1565 S. Disneyland Dr., Anaheim) is an outdoor promenade with unique eateries, upscale and Disney-themed retail, and year-round entertainment outdoors.

For a more traditional downtown experience, walk around the circular Plaza Park in Old Towne Orange or stroll through Downtown Fullerton. Both cities have maintained their charming historic areas for over a century, with a bevy of antique and retail boutiques, restaurants, and activities throughout the year.

While you might think of Southern California style as laid back (jeans, a tee, and flip flops), O.C. style is more polished casual (like jeans with heels). The perfect outfit for your visit would be layers — think jeans, a cool pair of sneakers, sweater, sunglasses, and always sunscreen.

When I want to score a bargain on luxury brands, I always head to The Outlets at Orange (20 City Blvd. West, Orange). It's home to Off Saks, Nordstrom Rack, Neiman Marcus Last Call, and Bloomingdale's — lots of spots for finding hidden little gems for the best price.

South Coast Plaza (3333 Bristol St., Costa Mesa) is my go-to spot when I'm shopping for clients who want high-end premium brands like Chanel, Louis Vuitton, Gucci, Saint Laurent, and Hermès. I'm not going to a department store — I'm going to boutiques with the best selection. What I also love about South Coast Plaza is that it offers "contemporary fashion" from stores like John Varvatos. It's also a great spot to shop for the kids as many of the stores offer their full kids' line, like Thom

Browne and Crewcuts from J.Crew.

For a truly unique shopping experience, Lido Marina Village (3434 Via Lido, Newport Beach) is the spot. You can shop at cool stores like Jenni Kayne, The REALREAL, and Cos Bar. Afterwards, walk across the cobblestone street to grab a glass of wine and check out the boats in the marina. It's just stunning.

A few fun spots for those looking to score a great vintage find would be Elsewhere Vintage (105 W. Chapman Ave., Orange) and Fourth Street Retro Row (2436 E. 4th St., Long Beach).

Orange County is really all about the surf culture. Those who want to take home a bit of O.C. fashion should check out the surf shops in Huntington Beach on Main Street (between PCH and Orange) and at Pacific City (21010 Pacific Coast Hwy., Huntington Beach). Grab a cool tee from Huntington Surf & Sport or a fun bikini from one of the little bikini shops to remember your visit to the O.C.

Knott's Berry Farm Foodie Guide

You'll never go hungry at Knott's, which prides itself on offering a dizzying array of top-notch eating options no matter where you turn at the park. Here's the ultimate insider's guide to eating at Knott's, from fun to fancy.

CALIFORNIA'S FIRST theme park, Knott's Berry Farm, is well known for some of the most thrilling coasters in SoCal, but it's also the birthplace of the boysenberry. Here you'll find award-winning fried chicken along with more boysenberry treats than you could imagine. We've put together an extensive Foodie Guide to Knott's Berry Farm so you can have a little help when it comes to planning out your day at the park.

You don't have to enter the park to get your culinary tour off to a delicious start. Visit Knott's California Marketplace just outside the main entrance where you'll find Farm Bakery with every baked good under the stars including the quintessential boysenberry tart bursting with fresh berries. Next door is Candy Parlour, with all your favorite vintage sweet treats—don't forget to try the boysenberry fudge. Boba Knott's is the place for milk tea fans, and serves (of course) boysenberry boba along with traditional flavors like brown sugar boba and matcha. Mouth-watering fried chicken is the star at Mrs. Knott's Chicken Dinner Restaurant. Get yours with mashed potatoes and flaky biscuits but be sure to save room for boysenberry pie, best served a la mode.

Just inside Knott's Berry Farm is Ghost

Town where the wild west is in full effect. Fireman's BBQ cooks up all your barbecue favorites on an open-air grill. Whether you go for ribs, a flank steak sandwich, or the iconic turkey leg, be sure to try the freshly grilled corn on the cob and jalapeño cornbread. Looking for a more portable meal? Strictly-on-a-Stick serves up traditional corn dogs, while Calico Tater Bites offers loaded pastrami tater tots. At Ghost Town Grill you'll find comfort food options like chili in a bread bowl, chicken pot pie pastries, sarsaparilla floats, and other classics. Grab a refreshing glass of sarsaparilla, boysenberry punch or Calico cream soda at the Calico Saloon. Sweets reign at Ghost Town Bakery, especially the too-cute Snoopy cookie and boysenberry cake. If a boysenberry-stuffed churro sounds more your style, head to Gourmet Churro Factory where you can also get your churro served up in a sundae. During the heat of the day, make a beeline for the Mix-It-Up Ice Cream Shop for the boysenberry or vanilla cookiewich that's definitely big enough to share. You can't leave the park without a Knott's famous funnel cake, and you'll find a superlative example at Ghost Town Grub topped with all the fixings.

Cool off on a warm afternoon with a frozen lemonade or mango chamoy lemonade from Oaxaca Joe's Limonada in Fiesta Village, in an area of the park that pays tribute to California's Hispanic roots. Adult beverages are on the menu at Cantina del Sur where you'll find beer, margaritas, and tequila tastings. Enjoy the mariachi music as you customize your burrito bowl at Casa California Restaurante and be sure to save room for their signature Mexican desserts from chocoflan to Oreo churros. Everyone's favorite birria tacos are the best sellers at Baja Taqueria where you can get yours served up with a side of consume for dipping.

Boardwalk is our next stop with California surfer vibes around every corner. For a caffeine pick-me-up stop by Charleston Circle Coffee for their boysenberry lattes. You'll be cool as a cucumber after stopping at Dippin' Dots for a bowl of flash-frozen pellet ice cream. Knott's is the only place you'll find the boysenberry flavor of this frozen treat so you'll definitely want to try it out. When hunger hits, the Boardwalk has a number of options. You can chow down on a full barbecue spread of rotisserie chicken, pulled pork, tri-tip, ribs, and sausage at Boardwalk BBQ. Or if classic theme park eats are more your style, Coasters Diner has everyone's favorite chili cheese dog served up with fries or onion rings. Italian is the name of the game at Prop Shop Pizzeria and you'll find a pasta bar, pizza station, and antipasto salads.

Camp Snoopy is a park favorite with rides and eats for visitors of all ages. Families love the quick eats at Cave Inn Snacks where you'll find soft pretzels, churros, soft-serve ice cream, and the real star on a hot day—the boysenberry ICEE. Get your souvenir Woodstock bucket filled with buttery popcorn at the Seasoned Popcorn Cart. Bonus: you can bring it home with you to remember all the fun!

Then & Now

Knott's Berry Farm has grown exponentially from its humble berry stand beginnings in 1920. We strolled down memory lane for a look at the park's iconic and timeless attractions.

MRS. KNOTT'S CHICKEN DINNER RESTAURANT

Still operating in its original location, Mrs. Knott's Chicken Dinner restaurant is the heart of the theme park and the catalyst for its formation. The restaurant's signature 65-cent dinners — first served on Cordelia Knott's wedding china in her small tea room in 1934 — attracted thousands of eager customers daily, necessitating multiple expansions. Nowadays the restaurant's 900-seat dining room serves over 1.5 million customers in a typical year, and over 1,000 chicken dishes per day.

KNOTT'S TIMBER MOUNTAIN LOG RIDE

Knott's Timber Mountain Log Ride is one of the oldest log flume rides in the U.S., and the most popular ride at the park. Screen legend John Wayne and his son, Ethan, were the first guests to take the plunge at the ride's opening in 1969.

THE CALICO SALOON

Opened in 1951 as the Ghost Town Bar, the Calico Saloon incorporated the design and character of old saloons throughout the West. Just as they do today, guests sipped sarsaparilla or boysenberry punch, and watched Old West musicals, comedic entertainment, and can-can dancers in the building's calico fabric-covered walls.

Images of and information about the Calico Saloon courtesy of Jay Jennings, curator of the Knott's Berry Farm Museum. For more on Knott's history, check out Jennings' book "Knott's Berry Farm: Then and Now."
