

Dear 4-H Club or FFA Chapter,

By now your club members or chapter member's swine projects should be well on their way and getting ready for fair. Please pass this along to all that have entered a swine project and would like to be considered for this special award.

To the applicant: If extra space is needed, you may use a second sheet of paper. Please take into consideration that this is an application and to use your best handwriting and grammar.

Wishing everyone best of luck at the fair,

The Herdsman Swine Award Committee
