CENTRAL STATES FAIR YOUTH LIVESTOCK SHOWS

General Rules and Guidelines

- No minimum age requirement. No help in the show ring
- Health papers are required at check-in
- Entries will be done online through the Showman.app website. No mailed in registrations will be accepted.
- You may register on-site. Registration cost increases on August 14.

Livestock Requirements

South Dakota state law requires all animals to have a current health certificate when being exhibited at a fair or livestock exposition. Health certificate should be issued within 30 days of the Central States Fair. They can be sent electronically issued from a vet and emailed to paige@blackhillsstocksow.com or brought to registration.

Stalling

Barn 8 is reserved for the Central States Fair livestock shows; with overflow available if needed. Stalls are not assigned, and are available on a first come first served basis. All stalls are pre-bedded, unlocked, and ready for your arrival. Please be courteous and pick up after yourself. There are limited swine pens available in Barn 9. Barn release is at the end of your show. No set barn release times will be mandated.
