2. Exhibit must not have been entered in previous years.
 - Dishes and utensils may be repeated.
 - OPTIONAL – Provide a menu to go with your setting

You should plan a coordinated, economical table setting around a selected culture or theme.

The objective is to coordinate a table setting for a particular meal: breakfast, lunch or dinner and/or theme.

The exhibit will consist of:

1. A covering (such as a place mat) and an optional centerpiece.
2. One complete place setting properly set.

The table setting will be judged on:

- a) Creativity of theme or enhancement of culture.
- b) Use of appropriate accessories.
- c) Eye-catching appeal.
- d) Accuracy of table setting.

Paper items are permissible. We encourage you to make your own covering and centerpiece. They are inexpensive and add an extra personal touch to your table.
