

SHOWMANSHIP – SPECIAL

An award will be presented to the champion junior, intermediate and senior show person. The sponsor for these awards will be announced at the time the award is presented.

HERDSMANSHIP - SPECIAL

Two awards will be presented at the conclusion of the Junior Fair. These awards will be given to the large club/organization and also the small club/organization at the Herdsmanship meeting. Sponsors for these awards will be acknowledged at that time.

Herdsmanship is judged upon the club/organization displays, cleanliness, educational content, and ability to promote their project.

Check General Rules and Animal Related Guidelines found in the front of this book.

1. Vaccinations: It is highly recommended that horse/ponies be vaccinated at least 30 days prior to the fair against Eastern & Western Sleeping Sickness, Tetanus and Influenza. The fair reserves the right to request proof of vaccination should the need arise. Exhibitors must bring & show original Coggins and a copy (copy to be maintained by fair office) upon arrival at the fair.
2. Stall display must stay up until release time.
3. Each exhibitor may enter one horse (options: pleasure, weanling, yearling, two year old, three and over, gymkhana, draft, miniature, or pony). An exhibitor may show up to three horses, which must be different from one's primary horse (options, weanling, yearling, two-year old, draft, miniature, pony). In the event the number of primary horses entered maximizes available stalls, exhibitors may not be permitted to bring a second or third horse.
4. Any exhibitor that has shown w/t/c at breed/
