

Media Contact:

Ruth Nicolaus

319-321-2152

For the St. Paul Rodeo

RODEO NOBILITY

St. Paul Rodeo selects 2025 Royal Court

St. Paul, Ore. (October 7, 2024) – The St. Paul Rodeo has chosen its 2025 Royalty.

Macy Montgomery, Tigard, Ore., has been selected as the 2025 queen. Anna Baumholtz, Dayton, Ore., and Morgan Brownell, Stayton, Ore., were selected as princesses.

Montgomery, a student at Oregon State University, is a 2021 graduate of Mountainside High School. She will graduate college next May with a Bachelor of Science in Construction Engineering Management.

She has volunteered with the St. Paul Rodeo for the past ten years and became a member of the St. Paul Rodeo Association in 2019. She served as a 2022 St. Paul Rodeo Princess and attributes the rodeo with building her into the person she is today.

Montgomery is the daughter of Diana Montgomery and Bruce Montgomery.

Princess Anna Baumholtz, a 2024 graduate of Dayton High School, is a student at Linfield University (McMinnville, Ore.) She is on a pre-veterinary medicine track, studying biology and neuroscience and hopes to attend Oregon State College of Veterinary Medicine after her undergraduate schooling is done.

In high school, she was a member of the Oregon High School Equestrian Team (OHSET), her school's FFA chapter, and the National Honor Society.

As a young lady, she admired the royal court and hopes to be an inspiring figure to young girls.

She is the daughter of Frank and Heather Baumholtz.

Princess Morgan Brownell is a 2024 graduate of Stayton High School and a student at Linn-Benton Community College (Albany, Ore.), with plans to transfer to Oregon State University and major in animal science.

In high school, Brownell was a member of her school's OHSET team and FFA chapter. She served as the 2020-2021 Junior Miss Rodeo Oregon and the 2023 Miss Teen Rodeo Oregon. She is the fourth generation of her family to be associated with the St. Paul Rodeo; her great-grandpa Frank Kirsch, Sr., was a director, as was her grandpa Frank Kirsch Jr. Her dad, Keith Brownell, is a current director. Morgan also competed in high school rodeo.

She is the daughter of Keith and Debbie Brownell.

The St. Paul Rodeo Queen pageant includes personal interviews, speeches and horsemanship competitions; each of this year's winners have previously volunteered at the rodeo, carrying sponsor flags in the grand entry.

The Royal Court will make appearances at rodeos and other events across Oregon, and will serve as ambassadors for the storied St. Paul Rodeo throughout the year. They represent the rodeo and western industry for those attending the St. Paul Rodeo and beyond.

The St. Paul Rodeo takes place July 1-5, 2025 in St. Paul. Performances start at 7:30 pm each night with fireworks following the show. A July 4 matinee begins at 1:30 pm. Tickets go on sale November 14 and will be available online at www.StPaulRodeo.com. They range in price from $26-$65. For more information, visit the website or call 800.237.5920.

The 2025 St. Paul Rodeo Royalty has been selected. They are Queen Macy Montgomery (center); Morgan Brownell (on the left) and Anna Baumholtz. Photo courtesy St. Paul Rodeo.