

Jim Shoulders (Rough Stock Rider)

Henryetta, OK

St. Paul Rodeo Bareback Riding Champion in 1951, '52 and '55 and Bull Riding Champion in 1948, '49, and '52. Jim held 16 P.R.C.A. World Championships and went on to become a rodeo producer. He was featured in Wrangler commercials and, over the years, his name became synonymous with the sport of rodeo.

Buddy Groff (Timed Event Cowboy/Cowgirl)

Buddy Groff, Hondo TX

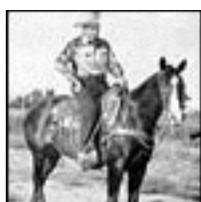

All-Around Champion Cowboy at St. Paul in 1951, '53, '55, '58, retiring one of our three-win trophies. His event wins were Calf Roping in 1953, '55, and '58; Steer Wrestling in 1955, and Wild Cow Milking in 1951 and '53. Once offered the chance to try out with the St. Louis Cardinals, he declined in favor of a rodeo career.

Charmayne James (Timed Event Cowboy/Cowgirl)

Stephenville, TX

Along with her great horse, Scamper, she won the Barrel Racing at St. Paul from 1989 to 1994, inclusive, and was World Champion Barrel Racer ten times. Charmayne started P.R.C.A. barrel racing in 1984 at the age of 14 and continues to be very competitive in the event.

Harley M. Tucker (Contract Act/Personnel)

Joseph, OR (deceased)

Stock Contractor who furnished livestock for our rodeo from 1944 to 1960 when he died suddenly at a rodeo in Vancouver, WA. Harley and his stock helped St. Paul get established during those growing-up years. He was inducted into the National Cowboy Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City in 1998.

Ray Manegre (Board/Committeeman)

St. Paul, OR (deceased)

One of the eight original founders of the St. Paul Rodeo. He served on the Board of Directors from 1936 until 1959 and as Rodeo President for seventeen of those years. Ray passed away in 1963 and is remembered as a large man with a big smile who loved a good horse. Each of his daughters served as St. Paul Rodeo queen: Betty in 1942 and Mary Lou in 1947.
