

Walker, Enoch (Rough Stock Rider)

Cody, Wyoming (deceased)

St. Paul Saddle Bronc Riding Champion in 1957, 1958 and 1964 and World Champion SB Rider in 1960. During his last appearance at the National Finals Rodeo, his horse reared in the chute with him and seriously injured his back. Enoch died at the age of 45 and left three sons who reside in the Billings, Montana area.

OLIVER, Dean (Timed Event Cowboy/Cowgirl)

Boise, Idaho

St. Paul Rodeo Calf Roping Champion in 1960, 1962 & 1974 and World Champion Calf Roper eight times: 1955, 1958, 1960–1964, & 1969. He was also World Champion All–Around Cowboy in 1963, 1964, & 1965. Dean is well known in rodeo and has served as Calf Roping Director of the PRCA many times.

GROWNEY, John (Contract Act/Personnel)

Red bluff, CA

Managing Director, Growney Brothers Rodeo Co. has been a stock contractor at St. Paul since 1982. He was elected PRCA Stock Contractor of the Year in 2000. Growney Brothers' bull, Wolfman, teamed with cowboy, Wade Leslie, for the only 100–point ride in pro–rodeo history.

FERSCHWEILER, Cy (Board/Committeeman)

Gervais, Oregon, (deceased)

Served on the Board of Directors from 1972 to 1998, was Vice–President from 1983 to 1985 and President from 1986 to 1989. Cy was chairman of the Grounds Committee for many, many years. For weeks prior to the rodeo, he spent more time at the grounds doing whatever was needed than any other rodeo member, sometimes enlisting the help of his wife, Anita.

McKillip, Delores "Dee" (General Membership)

St. Paul, Oregon, Grew up with the rodeo. Her father, Maurice Smith, was one of its eight founders. Dee rode in parades and grand entries, was a rodeo princess in 1947, and competed in the Girls' Barrel Race and other horse races. She and her husband, John, worked on the Queen's Committee, and Dee has served as Rodeo Social Chairman for many years. She continues to be seen riding her horse around the community.