A Season to Celebrate

This season we celebrate the 10-year anniversary of the APGFCU Arena at Harford Community College, which has hosted over 600 community, entertainment, and sporting events over the past decade. We are extremely fortunate to have the APGFCU Arena, along with the Chesapeake Theater, Amoss Center, Black Box Theater, recital halls in Joppa Hall, Chesapeake Gallery, and Hays-Heighe House on our campus to offer live, quality arts programming and events.

Harford Community College's mission is Grow. Achieve. Inspire. Contribute. Our events and arts programming embody the College's mission as we experience live arts together. Human connection, creativity, and collaboration strengthen our campus and community. We hope you will join the celebration this season for a great lineup of concerts, family programming, dance and theater productions, exhibits, and community celebrations.

We want to continue to provide you with the best possible experiences before, during, and after the show. Please share your suggestions about the ways we may make your experience unforgettable. Contact the Ticket Office at 443-412-2211 or email me at srutherford@harford.edu with your ideas, feedback, and suggestions.

Thank you for supporting the arts and live events in Harford County. We hope you will join us for this celebratory season!

THE MAN IN BLACK

SHAWN BARKER

Born and raised in a working class suburb of St. Louis, Shawn Barker took a schoolboy love for singing in church with his family and turned it into a career, a one of a kind tribute to Johnny Cash, one of America's greatest musical icons.

Universally considered the pre-eminent Johnny Cash tribute artist, Barker has an uncanny resemblance to Cash.

His strikingly similar looks, voice, and spot-on mannerisms revitalize the true character of Mr. Cash himself, and have led Barker to an immensely successful career performing his tribute to the original "Man In Black".

Barker's path to his current success wasn't a straight line from gospel choir to Johnny Cash tribute act. After serving his country in the Army, Barker came home to Missouri, took a job as a carpenter, and spent all of his free time learning how to play the guitar. He developed strength and versatility in his voice by modeling his crooning on a cast of legends—Johnny Cash, Elvis Presley, Roy Orbison, Buddy Holly and Gene Vincent. His performances quickly turned from hobby to profession, but oddly enough, Barker's first touring gigs were portraying Elvis, not Johnny Cash. Everything changed, however, when Barker was asked to audition for the part of Cash in a Hollywood production, as it became evident to the director and Barker himself that Johnny Cash was his true calling. From that point there was no turning back.

Danú has been one of the leading traditional Irish ensembles since their debut album was released in 1997 to huge critical acclaim. For more than two decades, Danú's virtuosi players on flute, tin whistle, fiddle, button accordion, bouzouki, and vocals (Irish and English) have delighted audiences worldwide. Winners of numerous awards from the BBC and Irish Music Magazine, Danú takes its audiences on a musical journey to their native Ireland, offering a moving and memorable concert experience.

Sara Evans

Multi-platinum entertainer Sara Evans is the fifth most-played female artist on country radio in the last two decades. Sara's "stunning, country voice" (Rolling Stone) has earned her the prestigious Academy of Country Music's Top Female Vocalist accolade as well as numerous American Music Awards, Billboard Music, and Country Music Association, CMT and Grammy Awards nominations. Sara has continued to forge her bold, creative path with "Copy That," which opened at #1 on the iTunes Country chart, released on her own Born To Fly Records on May 15, 2020.
