PHOENIX FESTIVAL THEATER

Footloose is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals. Directed by Rodd Robertson. Stage adaptation by Dean Pitchford and Walter Bobbie. Based on the original screenplay by Dean Pitchford. Music by Tom Snow. Lyrics by Dean Pitchford. Additional music by Eric Carmen, Sammy Hagar, Kenny Loggins and Jim Steinman.

When Ren and his mother move from Chicago to a small farming town he's not prepared for the rigorous local edicts, including a ban on dancing instituted by the local preacher, who is determined to exercise control over the town's youth. Footloose celebrates the wisdom of listening to young people while guiding them with a warm heart and an open mind.

TOGETHER AGAIN!

Live, in-person, and together – the Office for Events & Conferencing is thrilled to be presenting our spring 2022 arts season! It was very exciting to reopen our doors this past summer and fall, and get back to what we love: arts, events, and being together. Our spring 2022 season brings more of the diverse, quality arts programming you've come to expect from Harford Community College. We hope you'll join us for our great lineup of concerts, family programming, dance and theater productions, exhibits, and community celebrations.

Shortly we will launch a new website designed to showcase all we offer to the community and campus. Playbills will soon be available in a digital format, in addition to print, among other enhancements.

We want to provide you the best possible experience before, during, and after the show. We hope you'll share your suggestions about ways we may make your experience unforgettable. Please contact the Ticket Office at 443.412.2211 or email me at srutherford@harford.edu with your ideas, feedback, and suggestions.

Thank you for supporting the arts in Harford County! We can't wait to see you during our spring 2022 season!

NOBUNTU

Full Biography:

Nobuntu, the female a cappella quintet from Zimbabwe, has drawn international acclaim for its inventive performances that range from traditional Zimbabwean songs to Afro Jazz to Gospel. The ensemble's concerts are performed with pure voices, augmented by minimalistic percussion, traditional instruments such as the Mbira (thumb piano) and organic, authentic dance movements.

Nobuntu was nominated for Best Musician of the Year at the Zimbabwe International Women Awards in London in 2015 and are currently a two-time winner for the Best Imbube Group at the Bulawayo Arts Awards 2017 and 2019. In the last few seasons, the quintet has performed at festivals and concert halls in Italy, Austria, Germany, Belgium, the Czech Republic and throughout the African continent. The ensemble was a huge critical success at "Trans-Vocal" in Frankfurt and "Voice Mania" in Vienna. Their first tour to Canada, in 2016, included performances in Toronto, Winnipeg, Vancouver, and Victoria.

The word Nobuntu is an African concept that values humbleness, love, unity and family from a woman's perspective. The ensemble represents a new generation of young African women singers who celebrate and preserve their culture, beauty, and heritage through art. The ensemble's mission is the belief that music can be an important vehicle for change, one that transcends racial, tribal, religious, gender, and economic boundaries.

Back at home, Nobuntu holds a number of community initiatives, one of which is The Nobuntu Pad Bank where they gather sanitary pads for young women in the arts in underprivileged communities.

Nobuntu has released three recordings – Thina in 2013, Ekhaya in 2016 and Obabes beMbube in 2018. The group has made dozens of television and radio appearances throughout Africa and Europe promoting these recordings and the culture of their homeland.

SUPPORT THE ARTS IN HARFORD COUNTY

Each year, Harford Community College enriches the lives of people of all ages with music, theater and dance performances from the community and around the world. Because production costs often exceed ticket revenue, we rely on community support to ensure the future of quality theater at affordable prices.

Your tax-deductible donation supports the College's mission to provide a variety of diverse productions while expanding cultural opportunities, especially to underserved populations. Supporting the arts in your community fuels economic growth, helps students succeed in school, and brings people together.

Please consider supporting the arts in Harford County. Your generous donation will be acknowledged in upcoming programs.

Please indicate your donation by checking one of the following:
