DRUG FREE WORKPLACE/DRUG FREE SCHOOLS AND COMMUNITIES

Harford Community College prohibits possession, use or distribution of illicit drugs and illegal or unauthorized use of alcohol by volunteers in the workplace. Violations may result in action by law enforcement officials, disciplinary action up to and including termination of volunteer activities and/or mandatory participation in a substance abuse rehabilitation program. By federal law, Harford Community College must be notified within five days of any volunteer's conviction under criminal drug statutes for conduct in the workplace.

I have read and understand the above statement.

CRIMINAL BACKGROUND SCREENING

Criminal Background Screening

HCC requires that all volunteers undergo and successfully complete a criminal background screening and sex offender search before being approved as a volunteer for the College.

I have read and understand the above conditions for serving as a volunteer. By signing this information form, I acknowledge and accept the aforementioned conditions of volunteering and grant HCC and its authorized vendor(s) permission to conduct investigative consumer reports to the extent permitted by law.
