

Gulf Coast Cattlemen's Conference

August 12th – Grace Fellowship Church – Atmore

Call / Text to Register: (251) 654-7149

Agenda

8:00 am – Registration / Trade Show Opens

8:45 – Welcome

Ken Kelley (Alabama Cooperative Extension System)

9:00 – Being an Advocate for the Beef Industry

(Facts related to organic vs. conventional, grass-fed vs. grain-fed, antibiotics / hormone use, and methane emissions will be discussed)

Dr. Lisa Kriese-Anderson (Retired Extension Beef Cattle Specialist - Alabama Cooperative Extension System)

9:50 – Beef Imports and Exports: What roles do they play in our market prices?

Dr. James Mitchell (Assistant Professor & Livestock Economist - University of Arkansas)

10:40 – Break / Trade Show Open

11:10 – Market Outlook and Price Protection Opportunities

Dr. James Mitchell (Assistant Professor & Livestock Economist - University of Arkansas)

12:00 – Lunch & Learn – Reducing your Input Costs

Chris Prevatt (State Extension Economist - University of Florida)

12:40 – Trade Show Open

1:00 – Saving Money on your Fertilizer

Kent Stanford (Extension Nutrient Management Specialist - Alabama Cooperative Extension System)

1:50 – Managing Bahiagrass and Winter Annuals for Beef Cattle on the Gulf Coast

Dr. Ann Blount (Professor and Extension Plant Breeding Specialist - University of Florida)

2:40 – Stockpiling Bahiagrass in the Deep South

Michael Agar (Cargill Beef Sales Consultant & AU Ruminant Nutrition M.S. Student)

3 – Survey / Wrap Up

