

"I figured if a girl wants to be a legend, she might as well go make herself one." - unknown

Ava Wright is a junior in high school and resides in Erie, Colorado with her family. The seventeen year old is excited to serve as an ambassador for the Boulder County Fair and Rodeo 2022 Lady In Waiting.

Ava has had a passion for Agriculture and anything western since she was little. Having been homechooled with her sister for the past 11 years by her mom has given her more time to read and ride her horses. Ava's favorite classes have been history, science, Shakespear, mock trial and debate. She also loves to hunt and hang out with her sister and cousins.

This is Ava's eighth year in Boulder County 4H with the All-In-Stride club. She has shown horses, chickens, lambs, dabbled in cake decorating, and competed in livestock and horse judging. The All-In-Stride club has become her 2nd family and Ava has been honored to hold the positions of President and Vice President.

In 2019, the then 14 year old, was accepted into the American Quarter Horse Association Ranching Heritage Youth Development program. Ava was one of 35 applicants that received a weanling from a Ranching Heritage.

breeder. She is extremely proud of her filly; who is currently 2 years old and Ava is training her to ride.

One of Ava's passions is barrel racing. This is her 3rd year competing in the Colorado Junior Rodeo Association. Additionally, she is learning ranch roping and values that history.

In the perfect future, Ava would be a barrel racer who makes it to the National Finals, a mentor to kids through giving riding lessons and possibly run or help run a cattle and horse operations.
