

Sheridan McBee is 18 years old from Firestone Colorado and is a senior at Mead High School. She has been a part of Boulder County Fair since she was 6 years old in the Cloverbud 4-H program. Sheridan's current projects in 4-H are horses, dogs, archery, and market lambs as well as showing market lambs through FFA. Outside of 4-H and FFA Sheridan loves to ride her horses, spend time with friends and work on her truck. She currently has a three year old colt named Chief that she has been training by herself. After graduating high school she plans to go to college for equine training and agriculture business with certificates in welding and horseshoeing. Sheridan is currently studying agriculture and animal science through the Career Elevation Technology Center in Longmont and loves advocating for agriculture, 4-H and FFA.
