Brackenridge Recreation Complex Youth Program Code of Conduct

Purpose

The purpose of the Brackenridge Recreation Complex Youth Program (BRC YP) is the positive development of youth. We believe in creating a fun and safe environment that encourages youth to spend time outdoors with nature. We expect all persons involved in the Brackenridge Recreation Complex Youth Program to practice behaviors that foster this purpose.

Code of Conduct

- Participants are encouraged to attend all program sessions. Participants should engage themselves in the activities being made available as part of the BRC YP.
- Participants are expected to arrive prior to the start time and be picked up at the end of the day.
- Participants are asked to remain at the program through entire session. If a participant should need to leave early, only those designated on the registration form may pick up the participant.
- Participants are expected to respect and follow the directions of the program director, staff and volunteers.
- Participants should respect the property of others and be responsible for themselves and their own property. Deliberate destruction or damage of facilities or equipment will not be tolerated. Financial responsibility for any damages caused by deliberate action will be assumed by the participant and/or the participant's parents/guardians. The same applies to the property and personal items of other participants.
- Participants should dress appropriately based upon the guidelines established.
- Possession, distribution, or use of alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, tobacco products, and unauthorized prescription drugs are not allowed at BRC.
- Animals and pets should be left at home unless needed to accommodate a disability.
- Electronic and mechanical devices (ex: cellular phones, laptops, MP3 players, etc.) will be allowed at BRC YP. If these items become a distraction, the device may be confiscated and will be returned to the participant at the end of the program day.
- Any conduct not specifically covered by this Code of Conduct, but deemed inappropriate by the program director, will be addressed at the end of the day.

Consequences

Unacceptable behavior during a Brackenridge Recreation Complex Youth Program will result in consequences to the participant. Consequences may include:

- Early release from a BRC YP daily session.
- Removal of participant from the current year's program.
- Denial of future participation in BRC YP.

I have discussed and reviewed this Code of Conduct with my child. I understand that failure to abide by this Code of Conduct may result in the consequences listed above which includes no refund. In the event that this code is violated, I agree to come to the program and pick up my child, at the request of the program director.

Parent's Release of Liability, Hold Harmless Agreement and Acceptance of Risks

In consideration to participate in any way in the Brackenridge Recreation Complex Youth Programs, I, represent that I am the participant's parent and/or legal guardian and that I understand the nature of the activities and the participant's experience and capabilities and believe that participant to be qualified to participate in the registered activities.

I understand that there are conditions that are dangerous and risky to my minor child at the complex including hazardous snakes and insects, depth and temperature of water, weather conditions, and the use of sporting equipment, including but not limited to paintball guns, fishhooks, canoes, and kayaks.

In consideration for my minor child being allowed to participate in Brackenridge Recreation Complex Youth Programs, I, for myself and on behalf of my heirs, assigns and personal representatives, and next of kin, hereby release Brackenridge Recreation Complex, Lavaca-Navidad River Authority and any partner organizations from all liability, claims, demands, losses or damages (whether to person or property), whether caused in whole or in part by the negligence of the indemnified party.

By signing this agreement, I acknowledge that I have read and fully understand the terms of this agreement and have signed it freely and without any inducement and assurance of any nature and intend the release and indemnity contained herein to be a complete and unconditional release of and indemnification against all liability to the greatest extent allowed by law. I agree that if any portion of the agreement is held to be invalid the balance, notwithstanding, shall continue in full force and effect.

COVID-19 Release Form

I acknowledge that the Brackenridge Recreation Department is taking reasonable measures to prevent the transmission of COVID-19 consistent with applicable public health guidelines.

I also acknowledge and recognize that it is impossible to ensure that the Adventure Day is 100% free of COVID-19 and that being at the camp contains innate risks that cannot be eliminated regardless of the care taken to avoid the spread of COVID-19.

I acknowledge, understand, and appreciate that these and other risks are inherent in participating in the Adventure Day Program.
