- contestant run list. They must be in the holding area and ready to ride with the last contestant. If the contestant refuses to ride a 2nd time, they will be given a no score.
13. Rigging ropes are optional and decision must be noted on entry form. If not noted, the automatic default will be not desired. All contestants choosing rigging ropes must provide their own rope and will be riding at the end of the event. Parent or Guardian will be given a maximum of 1 minute to rig rope and rider. The Committee, Staff or Volunteers will not be able to assist during this time, nor will they be held liable for any issues.
 14. There will be 3 lines starting at the chute and in 10' intervals placed on the arena floor. The first (1st) line will indicate a 50 score, the second (2nd) line will indicate a 60 score, the third (3rd) and final line will indicate a 70 score. Any contestant riding past the 30' line (70 score) will be given a score by the Judge of the event.
 15. All decisions of the event officials including the Judge are final.

All contestants will be given a participation ribbon. The top 10 placing contestants will be called back for a short go round. Contestants not in the short go round are allowed to leave after they have received their ribbon. There will be Grand & Reserve Champion buckles presented to the top 2 contestants.
