

YOUTH WESTERN ART SHOW Rules and Guidelines

"Western art is representing the heritage and lifestyle of the west, historical as well as present day."

The Brazos Valley Fair & Rodeo's intention is to encourage the education and appreciation of our western heritage through the Youth Western Art Contest. The above definition will therefore be the general guideline as to what is considered western art for this contest.

ELIGIBILITY

This contest is open to Texas students currently enrolled in an accredited public or private school or a home school environment in the counties listed below. Any student participating in the contest must be a citizen of the United States.

- | | |
|-------------|---------------|
| a. Brazos | e. Madison |
| b. Burleson | f. Milam |
| c. Grimes | g. Robertson |
| d. Leon | h. Washington |

CONTEST GUIDELINES

- A. Artwork must be completed under the supervision of a school art teacher. If an art teacher is not available in the school district, the parent/guardian may supervise the artwork. Any legal issue arising from the infringement of the copyright law is the sole responsibility of the student and their parent(s)/ legal guardian(s). The Brazos Valley Fair & Rodeo will not be responsible for or involved in any legal issues arising from infringement.
- B. Students, parents, and teachers are not permitted to be present during judging.
- C. Only one student may work on a single entry. No group projects.
- D. Categories for the Youth Western Art Contest include: Illustrations (paintings, drawing, etc.) and Sculptures.
- E. Each student may enter (1) one piece of artwork in each category.
- F. Each piece of artwork must be titled.
- G. Each entry must have a completed Declaration, Release and Acknowledgement Form which can be found on the entry form.
- H. Each entry must have an Artwork Tag. The release must be signed by the teacher, student and parent/legal guardian if the student is under the age of 18 years.
- I. All entries, award winning or not, will be on display for the duration of the Brazos Valley Fair & Rodeo and will not be available for checkout until Tuesday, October 26th, 2021.
- J. By entering artwork, the student agrees and understands that the Brazos Valley Fair & Rodeo reserves the right to reproduce entered artwork for any purpose. Proceeds, if any, will benefit the Brazos Valley Fair & Rodeo in support of its mission. By entering their artwork, students relinquish their right to reproduce their artwork for profit. Students may reproduce their artwork for personal use. The Brazos Valley Fair & Rodeo reserves the right to hold the Grand Champion artwork until the Grand Champion for the next year is announced.
- K. Artwork that is framed or larger than the size requirements will not be accepted for competition or display. See Artwork Guidelines on page 2 and 3 for full list of restrictions.

JUDGING

- A. The following criteria will be used to judge entries: (These criteria will be weighted equally)
 - a. Composition – Demonstrated use of aesthetic balance of visual weight, including object and color placement as it applies to the artwork
 - b. Craftsmanship with Chosen Medium – Artist's use of brushwork, color mixing, blending and skilled control of materials used

- c. Demonstrated Artistic Skill- Artist's handling of proportion, linear and atmospheric perspective, value, contrast, accurate drawing of details and subject, correct size relationships (i.e. legs bend the right way, cows the right size for the barn, saddles and bridles don't have missing elements, etc.)
 - d. Creative, Fresh Approach – Skillful application of innovative approach to subject matter (i.e. unusual point of view, or other original approach)
 - e. Title of Artwork – A great title will be thought-provoking and be the artist's way of enhancing emotion concerning the subject
- B. Judging will take place prior to the opening of the Fair. Judging is closed to the public.
- C. Judges will select winners for each category (illustration, sculpture) as follows:
- a. First, second and third place from each grade level (K-12)
