Sanctioned show rules:

1. These shows are sanctioned by the American Dairy Goat Association, and their rules shall govern. Only ADGA, AGS and CGS registered, recorded or applied for animals may be shown in an official ADGA show.
2. The Junior and Senior Shows are separately sanctioned. The show order is subject to change.
3. These shows are sanctioned by ADGA for the following breeds: Alpine, LaMancha, Nigerian Dwarf, Nubian, Saanen, Toggenburg, Recorded Grade, Oberhasli, and Sable. Group classes will follow breed classes (Friday show only).
4. The original registration or recordation's certificate is required for all animals six months of age or older. The original registration, recordation certificate or duplicate application stamped by the registry office is required for all animals under six months of age. (Stamped duplicate applications are accepted per ADGA rules.) These must be shown to the show secretary prior to the start of the show. No copies of the registration, recordation certificate or stamped duplicate applications, telegrams or phone calls will be accepted in lieu of the original documents.
5. Proof of ownership shall be the ADGA ID# on the registration or recordation certificate or on the stamped duplicate application. Persons showing animals, whose registration/recordation certificates have signed transfers that have not been processed by the ADGA office, must show those animals as agent for the owner shown on ADGA records. All names listed under one ID number constitute only one membership and only on exhibitor.
6. The base date for determining the age of the animal is the opening day of the fair.
7. Animals with full natural horns (not disbudded or dehorned) may not be shown in an official ADGA show.

REMEMBER TO INCLUDE YOUR PREMISE NUMBER ON YOUR ENTRY FORM.

If not a Wisconsin tested flock, bird needs to be banded with identification. Write band identification number on entry form where noted. If bird falls under a state certified flock, write “State Certified Flock” across top of entry form.

Coop Rental: $1.00 per bird (includes feed, water & care)

The show will be cooped in the classified manner as to variety and sex; the exhibitor is prohibited from substituting birds or changing them from one coop to another.

All awards will be made by comparison and judges will use as their guide the American Standard of Perfection.

Exhibitors and visitors will be prohibited from handling other than their own birds without the consent of the owner.

Competent attendants will have full charge of feeding and caring for stock and, whether exhibitors are present or not, they may rest assured that their stock will be carefully looked after and duly considered for awards.

The department officials are free to remove any birds showing evidence of a contagious disease.

All exhibits are entered at the risk of the owner.

Cock and hen birds are birds hatched before January 1 of the exhibit year. Cockerel and pullet birds are birds hatched on or after January 1 of the exhibit year.

Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion Male and Female will be awarded in Chickens and in Water Fowl. A

Supreme Grand Champion will be awarded over all. (No Premium)
