

Angel Zoulek is the daughter of Peter and Laura Zoulek, born and raised in Traverse City, she is 19 years old and is a 2022 graduate of Kingsley High School. She attended her freshman year at Rochester University as a pre-med student while playing college volleyball. Angel maintained a 4.0 throughout the academic year. She spends her free time painting, working out, or advocating for young women on social media.

Growing up, Angel gave back to the community through volunteer work at Reigning Liberty Ranch. Her duties included caring for the therapy horses and cleaning the barn. She also organized Students Against Negative Decisions in high school, promoting safe habits using fun activities.

Currently, Angel is competing for Miss Michigan under the title of Miss Traverse City. Her platform is women's mental health through fitness and social media. She is striving to break beauty standards using the power of kindness and promoting a healthy lifestyle. Angel has created a fitness page reaching out to women, young and old alike, across the internet.

Angel is graciously sponsored by Cherry Republic.
