Brent,

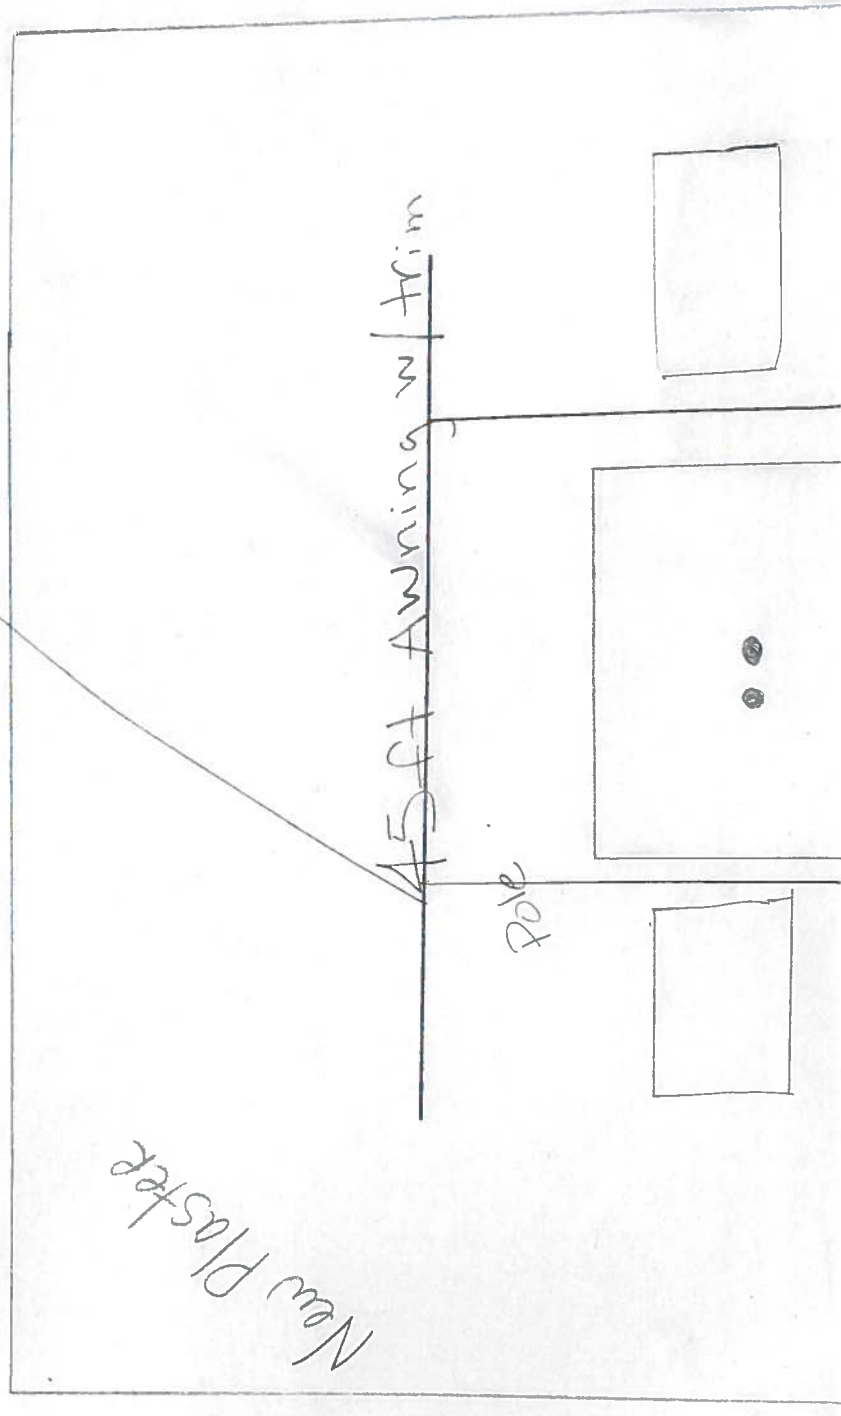

The forty five foot awning on the front of the building will cover the door and the windows on each side. With the length of the building just covering the door may look out of place. The price for the twenty foot awning is the back office entrance. If you decide to only cover the door, the price would be the same as the back awning. If you have any question or would like to meet me at the building just let me know.

Thanks,

David Kardosz

RE: BANNER FROM GONZALES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Chamber of Commerce purchased a banner at an auction at one of their meetings. The banner originally cost $540.00 and they won the bid at $350.00, for a savings of $190.00. This banner is 36 feet long and will hold 45 letters. The Chamber would like to sell the banner and has offered it to Main Street for their cost.

This would be good to use for the Concert Series and Star Spangled Spectacular. We probably would not be able to put it up this year, but would have it for next year.

The above grid reflects pricing on banners up to 4 feet tall with solid letters using a simple font and with no more than the suggested number of letters per banner. Additional letters or characters are available at a rate of $7.00 each. Special lettering and/or designs can be effectively reproduced on net banners at an additional cost. Digitally printed logos or patches, approx. 3'x 4' in size, are available for $100.00 each, with print-ready art.

Net banners are updateable. Variable information that could change from year to year, like date & time, is displayed on patches (see the yellow date patches pictured below). Patches are sewn out of all-weather nylon. A standard patch change is $106.00

We are happy to quote from your sketch and/or specifications. Please be sure to specify size, colors, and letter style.
