SPECIFIC SHOW RULES:

- Each 4-H and FFA exhibitor must assume all liability in case of injury or damage to, or caused by exhibitor's animal, relieving Clay County Fair Association, Inc. from all liability.
- Rope halters and neck ties must be used for all who are in the show.
- All breeds will show against each other.
- All animals must be cared for by the exhibitor and in show condition.
- All heifers and cows will be identified by brand, tattoo, or tag. All breed animals must have an Official Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (OCV) issued within 90 days of the Clay County Fair starting date.
- Due to the high cost of animals, the practice of leasing animals for the show is permitted, but it must be under the exhibitor's direct care for at least 30 days prior to the opening of the Fair. No "borrowing from another breeder will be allowed.
- This show is open to any beef heifer or cow except those containing more than 50% dairy breeding.
- Judging will be done on the Modified Danish System.
- Only blue-ribbon animals will be eligible to compete for championship.
- Each exhibitor must show their own animal unless the Show Superintendent and the Show Director approve another showman. If another showman is selected, both the exhibitor and the showman selected will be eliminated from any showmanship class.
- No adornment will be allowed on the animal during the show, including ear tags showing the animals farm or name.
- Seniors will groom their own animals with no assistance. Juniors can have one person give advice, but seldom touch the animal. The exhibitor MUST be the one doing the majority of the grooming. If seniors receive assistance, or juniors have more than one-person help, he/she will not compete in the Fitting and Grooming competition.
- No animals will be moved during fair hours except on show night. The aisle will be closed during show night to allow for safe movement.
- All animals must remain on exhibit for the fair from Thursday through Sunday. If interested in saying all 11 days of the fair please contact Chasitie Andrews. (904)862-8898
- An optional show practice will be the night before the show. It is not mandatory!
- All participants will be expected to keep their animal's bed clean during fair hours. There will be anonymous judges who will be watching.
- FFA and 4H clubs will have an assigned tack area. Heifer show participants in these clubs will be responsible for decorating and cleaning their area. NO individual participant tack area.
