CHEF MARK CECCIO

A PASSION FOR DELICIOUS REGIONAL FOOD

- Mark Ceccio developed his passion at an early age helping his grandmother, Maria, while she worked tirelessly in the kitchen. Maria was Sicilian and prepared everything from scratch using old world methods. Coming from a family of foodies, cooking came naturally and was in his blood.

- Starting as a fry cook 1995 working for various corporate chain restaurants In 1998 Mark entered Hinds Community College where he took a few semesters concentrating on Culinary Arts and Hotel and Restaurant Management. After Hinds, Mark turned his gaze to the world of fine dining working in Jackson, Mississippi and later in Florida where he would go on to work at high-end establishments including Ristorante de Tulios, and the Tampa Ice Palace.

- In 2003, Mark attended the Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park, NY. After graduation, Mark began working for the New York Palace, a four star four diamond luxury hotel in NYC. During his off time, Mark staged for Daniel Bolud of Restaurant Daniel, and Markus Samuelson of Aquavit, to further grow his culinary knowledge. In 2008, Mark joined the ranks of the Benjamin Hotel in midtown Manhattan at the position of Sous Chef. He later helped open the National Bar and Dining rooms within the Benjamin Hotel with acclaimed Iron Chef Geoffrey Zakarian. "Until you work with the best, you really have no idea how much you do not know." In 2013, Mark joined SMG, now ASM Global, as the Executive Chef of the Jackson Convention Complex. During his time there, he increased food quality scores to an all time high of 97 percent. His team won Taste of Mississippi best appetizer award in 2013 and lead the company with the highest food safety scores.

Marks strengths lie in his diversity. Having worked in the corporate chain restaurant world, private fine dining sector, luxury hotels, sports arenas, banquets and catering halls, he has honed his skills to become very well-rounded. Classically trained in French technique, he is also versed in various cultures cuisine's such as French, Italian, Regional American, Southern and Creole.
