

Visit DICKINSON

THE WESTERN EDGE of ND

Welcome to Dickinson, North Dakota

Dickinson is a City for Regional Experiences

Think that the badlands are only in South Dakota? They're not! Our North Dakota badlands are very different and have a variety of trees, brush, flowers, rugged landscapes, great trails, and primitive campsites. There are over 1.5 million acres of public land that are available for you to experience.

With over 700,000 visitors each year, the Theodore Roosevelt National Park is the "Go To" place for your next vacation. But where to stay? Where to find other things to do? Dickinson is the choice location for your travel, and it's only a quick half hour drive to the national park.

And for the business traveler who can't get over to the badlands, we recommend visiting the Badlands Dinosaur Museum, working out at the West River Community Center, or enjoying a craft beer at Phat Fish Brewing Co., or at de Porres House of Barbering and Lounge. Seriously, you have to check out the barber shop lounge!

We have a lot of ideas and suggestions that we have not mentioned yet. Like coffee? Check out The Coffee Cruise on our website by scanning the QR code or by going directly to our website at VisitDickinson.com.

BADLANDS DINOSAUR MUSEUM

There were feathered dinosaurs here. Don't believe us? You can see them for yourself at the Badlands Dinosaur Museum, along with other local fossil finds. The working gallery is popular with kids of all ages. If you prefer minerals and gems, there is a large, sparkly collection from all over the world.

JOACHIM REGIONAL MUSEUM

Cowboy stories. Cowgirl history. Western yesterday. You can learn about the romantic (or not so romantic) ranch and country lifestyle the locals lived each day. Along with the ranchers, the farm families, and the town residents on the plains survived without indoor plumbing or text messaging.

UKRAINIAN CULTURAL INSTITUTE

It's all about the eggs! The Pysanky Easter Eggs are a local treasure full of Ukrainian colors and symbolic designs, and each one dipped in dye repeatedly with motifs. Beautiful cloth embroidery, Pysanky Easter Eggs, and the popular "pyrohy" pasta are available products at the UCI.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT CENTER

TR was a cowboy! His time here in Dakota Territory was spent ranching and living the life of a stockman. He had two ranches called the Maltese Cross and the Elkhorn. Today, you can learn about his life near Medora, and his political world at the Theodore Roosevelt Center at Dickinson State University.
