I. INTRODUCTION

- A. The following terms, conditions, and requirements apply to the Royalty program and contest. These requirements and regulations do not supersede or negate the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo General Competition Rules. All contestants must be familiar with all Douglas County Fair & Rodeo Competition Rules. Additional and specific Competition Rules are set forth below and in the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo Queen and Princess Royalty Agreement. Both general and specific Competition Rules shall apply to competition and program unless specifically noted otherwise.
1. Every contestant entering any competition at the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo shall comply with the Competition Rules as set forth below and shall comply with any additional or specific requirements or regulations as set forth for each, individual competition. Submission of an entry to the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo expressly binds the contestant to all terms and conditions contained in any and all parts of the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo Competition Rules.
 2. If there are any questions about this competition or the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo Royalty Program, please contact either the Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent.

II. COMPETITION PROVISIONS

- A. Contestants selected for the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo Royalty Program must make appearances and represent the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo and the Douglas County Fair Board as requested until the end of next year's fair.
1. Selected contestants who fail to appear or participate in required appearances or events may be subject to discipline as set forth in Section 1, VIII of the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo General Competition Rules.
- B. Any horse may be inspected at any time for general health by Douglas County Fair & Rodeo Management. Any horse showing evidence of infectious, contagious or communicable diseases will be ineligible and excused from the Fairgrounds.
- C. Contestants are warned that any act of discourtesy or disobedience to the Officials on the part of the owner, groom, driver or rider, of any horse on exhibition will disqualify the contestant and the contestant will be subject to discipline as set forth in Section 1, VIII of the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo General Competition Rules.

2023 Douglas County Fair & Rodeo Royalty Rules

- D. No contestant or parent(s) of the contestant shall try to influence the judges, or in any way hinder the progress of judging the contest. Any person who is discourteous to the Directors, Judges, or officials or who attempts to influence or hinder the judging of this contest may be subject to discipline as set forth in Section 1, VIII of the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo General Competition Rules. THE JUDGES DECISIONS ARE FINAL.
- E. No stallions will be allowed in this competition or program.
- F. Only contestants are permitted to ride or school the horse on the Douglas County Fairgrounds.
 - 1. Anyone not listed as the Contestant on the entry form must receive prior written permission from Douglas County Fair & Rodeo Management to ride a horse other than their own on the Douglas County Fairgrounds. Permission must be granted immediately prior to the riding or schooling.
- G. In the HORSEMANSHIP event of the contest, contestants will be required to control their horse one handed, REGARDLESS of the bit used (i.e. snaffle bit, hackamore, or western curb, etc.) or age of horse.
 - 1. If a contestant chooses to ride two handed, it will be the judge's discretion to deduct points.
- H. At the discretion of Douglas County Fair & Rodeo Management, any horse that cannot be adequately controlled by the contestant will be excused from the show ring and/or the Fairgrounds. Safety and courtesy to all riders will be stressed. A horse is considered as being sufficiently out of control at any time the contestant is unable to manage the animal after a reasonable corrective action or time.
- I. If a selected Contestant/Royalty Member should fail to abide by the following requirements at any time either prior to or during her reign, she may be required to relinquish her position at the discretion of the Douglas County Fair Board and may be subject to discipline as set forth in Section VIII of the Douglas County Fair & Rodeo General Competition Rules.
 - 1. Contestants cannot be married and must remain unmarried during their reign.
 - 2. If the selected Queen and/or Princess should choose to marry during their reign, they must relinquish their position.
 - 3. They may not cohabitate with any significant other during their reign.
 - 4. They must not be, nor ever have been pregnant.
- J. Contestants will be judged on:
