AGENDA

Meeting

Attendance: Ben Alderton, Nick Candelaria, Pat Candelaria, Kirsten Cowan, Josh Davis, Sarah Fisher, Wes Jacobs, Joanna Mauck, Kyle Moore, Phil Riesselman, Patti Russell, Pam Spradlin and John Woodrick.

Catering Bid: Committee voted to stay with Plum Creek Catering.

Buyer Hats: Committee would like to request a sample of 1 grey and 1 black to see what the logo looks like.

Giveaway Options: Phil will follow up with Frank Potestio and will double check the budget

- Committee recommends 3 drawings
 - Chain saw, snow blower, chain saw, grill
 - Gift card, with toy in a basket

Packing Plant Options: SAAX Processing Plant burned down, 50 game animals were lost.

- The Committee made recommendation for Phil to research. The plant must take all main species.
 - Hudson – Justin Griffith will haul (would need insurance) – only takes pork
 - Jensen Blue Ribbon
 - Innovative
- Need to remove Saax and add new packing plant on the following:
 - ShoWorks
 - Bill of Sale
 - Back of Buyers cards

Brochure: The Committee recommend following changes:

- Replace bunny picture with duck (or turkey) picture
- Replace sheep picture with goat picture

- Add under Add Ons, “This applies only to exhibitors who are in the current livestock sale.”
- Add under I WON! WHAT DO I DO NOW – “Processing: Regretfully SAAX is no longer available option.”

Other Notes:

- John Woodrick to work with Michelle to ensure the sale has the required number of computers.
- No increase in our budget for 2020.
