RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Every care will be taken of entries, but the East Texas State Fair is not responsible for entries.
2. Items will not be accepted that are distasteful, suggestive, offensive or controversial.
3. Disqualification of an item will be decided upon by the Executive Creative Arts Committee, but the East Texas State Fair Staff has the final decision.

2022 Executive Creative Arts Committee:

Penny Hunter – Chairman, Harriett Lane, Sherry Spencer, Standlee Spencer,
Katie Brohard, Laura Hisel

4. Entries will only be accepted on the dates designated for take in days and times unless a large group has setup an appointment for special drop day or time.
5. All entries except for antiques and collections must have been completed within the last two years (except for canning) and may not have been previously entered in the East Texas State Fair.
6. Entry must be the work of the person named as Exhibitor.
7. Exhibitors entering entries in the Children or Youth Sections must meet age specifications.
8. Any entry that has been previously exhibited for competition during any East Texas State Fair will not be accepted.
9. Each exhibitor is permitted unlimited entries in each class, except in the Canning Department A. In the Canning Department only two jars per exhibitor are allowed in each class with exception of the Miscellaneous classes. In the Miscellaneous classes, an exhibitor may submit four entries.
10. When a Miscellaneous Class is offered, any items must be those that do not have a class available and should not be duplicates of items entered in other classes or departments.
11. The place awarded to any item is at the discretion of the judges for that Department. (A blue ribbon does not have to be awarded to a single entry.)
12. An entry must be an article entirely finished.
13. All pictures must be framed and wired for hanging with no Saw Tooth hangers. No glass allowed in frames. Items not properly wired or framed may be disqualified to show.
14. All home improvement articles, such as quilts, rugs, etc..., and all clothing must be clean. An article that is soiled, show wear or is unfit for exhibition will not be accepted.
15. Exhibitors may not remove their entries until the designated release days.
16. Entries can only be obtained by presenting the claim check to the Creative Arts Coordinators in Building A on designated release days.

DEPARTMENT A
CANNING
GUIDELINES FOR CANNED FOOD

1. Canned items will be in standard CLEAR glass jars, such as Mason, Ball, and Kerr jars.
2. Canned items must have been canned October 2021 or later by the exhibitor submitting the entry.
3. Canned food is NOT opened and tasted.
4. There will be no more than two jars per exhibitor in each class, except Miscellaneous classes. In Miscellaneous classes, an exhibitor may submit four entries.
5. Vegetables, Fruits, Juices, Meats, and Sauces may be canned in quarts and pints.
6. Jams, Jellies, Pickles, Relishes, and Butters may be canned in quarts, pints, 1/2 pints, or jelly jars.
7. All items submitted should be canned using appropriate methods of canning.
8. There must be no rusted lids. Entries with rusted lids will be disqualified.
9. All "screw rings" (rims) must be removed before entering.
10. Based on recommended canning guidelines, ¼ inch head space should be allowed for juices, jellies, jams, pickles and relishes. Low acid foods such as vegetables and meats require 1 inch of head space. High acid foods, tomatoes and fruits, need ½ inch of head space and must be below the liquid.
11. All jars must be clean on the outside.
12. Jars with popped lids or open lids will not be accepted. All lids must be sealed closed.
13. No warm jars will be accepted.
14. Each jar entered should have the following information TAPED TO THE BOTTOM OF JAR.
 - a. Name of Item
 - b. Method of Food Preservation
 - c. Date Preserved
 - d. Year's of Experience

Example:

Peaches, Hot Pack, boiling water canner, 20 minutes, July 13, 2021, First Time Canner.

15. No personal names will be allowed on the jars.

All framed artwork, paintings, needlework, etc. must be framed and ready to hang with wire attached UNLESS it is artwork done on a wrapped canvas board. Use eye screws that can be found at framing, hardware, and craft stores to attach the wire. Work which is not correctly wired for hanging is unsafe for display, as other types of hanging mechanisms will not fit securely on the hooks used in hanging or will pull loose, causing the work to fall and break. Please avoid using heavy or ornate frames. Hot glue, duct tape, or any other type of glue or tape should NOT be used to secure the wire for hanging. See examples above.
