

THE ERIE COUNTY FAIR LIVESTOCK CAMPING REQUEST

Requests are due by Friday July 12, 2024 (Must Enter Online)

You can place your camping reservation on the entry site where OPEN class animal entries are made: <https://ecfairlive.fairwire.com/>
(4-H exhibitors, you will need to make an account and use this site as well)

The Fee will be $35 per night.

This fee is applicable to the Horse Lot as well as the Lower Camping Lot on McKinley/Quinby Drive.

The following hook-ups are available: Water & Electricity

There will not be sewer hook-ups, a pump service will be available

You will receive a notice following the deadline if your request was accepted as space is limited. We will ask you to respond with the following needed information.

- Length of your camper, hitch to bumper
- Width of your camper included slide outs
- Identifying brand of your camper
- License plate #
- The dates you plan to arrive, stay and depart.

Please Email the Agriculture Office at entries@ecfair.org with this information.

We will move in any campers that plan to stay the entire fair or the beginning days of the fair on Saturday August 3, 2024. Those camping for the entire fair will be asked to arrive first so the camper lot is used efficiently. You will receive email correspondence to set up your time. If you cannot make the time assigned, other arrangements will need to be made during times available.

Campers must leave when animals leave the grounds, if not before.

 Tents using electricity will also be charged

Again, camper space availability is based on first-come, first-served basis!

Livestock Campground Guidelines

Camping requests: Requests only accepted online. Once the camper lot has reached the maximum number of requests it will no longer be available online. Please call the office at (716) 649-3900 ext. 6499 for other arrangements. Spots are reserved on a first-come, first-served basis.

Arrival: Again, this year there will be adults that volunteer their time to help set up the campgrounds. Campers may arrive on Saturday August 3, 2024, at the time slot they are allotted. No campers will be allowed to park unless a campground committee member is present. At the time of your arrival, you will be given the campground rules. It is important for all families to follow this procedure so that camp spaces are used efficiently and safely. Failure to follow this procedure may result in the loss of your camping privileges at The Erie County Fair.
