Release: August 12th - 7:00pm

Rules & Regulations:

1. Exhibitors are required to purchase a $15.00 wristband. Wristbands are valid for single person admission each day of your stay. If you do not bring your livestock to the fair for any reason, you will not receive your exhibitor wristbands.
2. 4H & FFA members are eligible to enter their market lambs into the Youth Livestock Expo but MUST pay the appropriate fees; this includes the exhibitor's wristband, entry fees and late fees where applicable.
3. Stalling will be preassigned. Tack pens are NOT guaranteed. In divisions where entries do not exceed available space tack pens will be assigned by the superintendent.
4. Exhibitors entered in the Youth Livestock Expo must be at least 4 years of age and no older than 21 years of age as of January 1st of the current year.
5. Each animal may compete for only one market premium.
6. Competition is open to all exhibitors from the United States and Canada.
7. All animal waste must be taken to the manure boxes and not left on the pavement to mix with run-off or storm water.
8. Initial sawdust bedding will be supplied to exhibitors. However, if the exhibitor wishes to have shavings or straw, they must bring it or buy it from a purveyor on the grounds. The Fair will not provide straw or shavings.
9. Rules of the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets Standards for the Conduct of Agriculture and Markets for Fairs and Summary of Livestock Health Requirements shall apply.
10. All Market Lambs must weigh over 90 pounds at official weigh-in.
11. All Market Lambs will be subject to a classification if not entered in the appropriate division. Final decision on division classification will be up to the show staff.
12. All exhibitors are required to participate in at least 1 contest during their stay at the Youth Livestock Expo, although we encourage exhibitors to participate in multiple contests. (See contest information for more details).
13. DNA Validation Envelopes must be submitted for each animal. (See DNA information for more details.)
14. Please read all Rules & Regulations, IAFE National Code of Show Ring Ethics and the Animal Health Requirements. Exhibitors will be required to "click to agree" when making online entries.
15. There is no limit to the number of animals entered per exhibitor.
16. The exhibitor of the animal MUST be the owner of the animal at time of entry.
17. Once DNA has been submitted on the animal that is entered in the YLE, the animal is not to be shown in any other exhibitor's name until final show day in August.
18. Once DNA is submitted the animals entered in YLE must not have gone through a sale or changed ownership.
19. At the scale all animals will be classified and broken into divisions based off breed characteristics Livestock will be classified by the classification committee made up of two classifiers appointed by Show Management. If an animal does not meet breed classification, it will move to the appropriate division by the classification committee. The judgment of the classification committee is final and not subject to protest. Please keep in mind, registration paper, breeder affidavits, or other paperwork is not considered in the classification process. Eligibility for the class is determined only by visual appraisal, as evaluated by classifiers appointed by Show Management.

20. If you are planning on camping in the livestock lot, please note that payment does not guarantee a spot. You will be notified & refunded if camper lot is full.

Contests:

1. Each exhibitor MUST compete in at least one contest in addition to showing (market & showmanship) their animal to participate in the Youth Livestock Expo.
2. There will be Top 5 Sweepstakes Winners selected per rotation. Once all contests are complete and judges' results are in, the points will be tallied. Exhibitor's overall points will consist of their highest market points, highest showmanship points and highest single contest points. (Example: John Doe has 10 Market Goat Points, 8 Market Lamb Points, 8 Goat Showmanship Points, 10 Lamb Showmanship Points, 5 Marketing Points, and 20 Interview Points. The final sweepstakes points for John Doe will come from his market goat, lamb showmanship, and interview for a total of 40 points.)
3. Payouts for Sweepstakes per rotation (First Rotation 8/10-8/12 Second Rotation 8/15-8/18)
 - a. Grand Champion- $100 and a Banner
 - b. Reserve Grand Champion- $75 and a Banner
 - c. Honorable Mention- $50 and a Banner
 - d. 4th Overall- $25 and a Banner
 - e. 5th Overall- $15 and a Banner
4. Contests available:
 - a. Interview - Each participant will sit with a panel of judges that will be conducting a "mock" interview for a job.
 - b. Marketing Contest- Each exhibitor will be required to market their animal to panel of judges.
 - c. Stall Decorating- Using the fair theme "A Roaring Good Time" exhibitors are asked to decorate their stalls fitting the theme. All decorations must stay amongst your allotted stall space. Get creative!
 - d. Educational Poster- This poster should be related to the species you are showing (if showing multiple, take your pick). Judging for this contest will take place at your stall.
5. To avoid long wait times, each exhibitor will be required to sign up ahead of time for each contest they want to participate in.
6. Awards ceremonies will be held on Friday, August 12 at 6pm for first rotation, and Thursday, August 18 at 6pm- for second rotation in the Livestock Arena.

Herdsmanship:

Three Herdsmanship awards will be given out to the lamb exhibitors. Herdsmanship will be judged daily by management, but not announced until the end of the stay. Awards are 1st place: $50 and a banner, 2nd place: $25, 3rd place: $15.

The following criteria will be considered for Herdsmanship judging:

1. Cleanliness & neatness of aisles, pens, bedding, and animals.
2. Promptness in getting animals into the show ring and competence in show ring.
3. Courtesy to fellow breeders, spectators, and others during the exhibit.
4. Personal appearance, including neatness and cleanliness of clothing in and out of the show ring.
5. Systematic and neat arrangement of feed, feed pans, bedding, tack, etc.
6. Stall decorations that tie with the Fair theme will receive bonus points.

Tack Vendor:

Twist of Fate Tack Shop will be on site during the Erie County Fair. Reach out to them with any supply needs. Phone: 860-759-9335.

Auction:

1. The top two placing New York animals (doesn't have to be the Grand or Reserve) in each specie will qualify for the sale.
2. ONLY residents of New York State will be able to sell, if you reside outside of New York State you will be unable to sell your animal through the Youth Livestock Expo.
3. If you are one of the top two placing animals and are from New York, you have the option of selling your animal. The exhibitor must notify the Youth Livestock Expo staff of their decision to sell or not by 9am of day following the show.
4. 6% commission will be taken out of the checks on all animal sales for the Youth Livestock Expo for expenses.

DNA:

1. All Youth Livestock Expo Market Animals must have DNA samples submitted to the Erie County Agriculture Offices by appropriate deadlines. All DNA validation envelopes will be species specific and color-coded (goats-green, lambs- purple, beef-gold, swine- pink).
2. All DNA must be post marked by June 15th of the current year. The YLE is not responsible for lost or misdirected mail. Certified mail with return receipt is recommended.
3. Hair will be used for DNA validation on all species. DNA Validation envelopes must be ordered from the Erie County Agricultural Society office. Only 2022 YLE DNA Validation envelopes will be accepted. Please follow the instructions for collecting hair samples exactly. Should the original sample not be a valid sample, the animal may be disqualified, and no monies will be paid.
4. There is no limit on the number of DNA samples that an exhibitor may submit.
5. Animals must be individually identified. The following forms of identification must be used. The identification on the animal must exactly match the identification on the DNA validation envelope.
 - a. Market Swine- must be identified by a federal 840 tag number and ear notches. Official ID's must start with 840 and must have the US shield on them.
 - b. Market Steers/Heifers- must be identified by a Federal 840 tag number.
 - c. Lambs must be identified by a scrapie ID number*. Entire ID number including state ID and herd/flock number is required.
 - d. Goats must be identified by a scrapie ID number*. Entire ID number including state ID and herd/flock number is required.

Since scrapie tags can occasionally be lost, it is recommended that you also tattoo the lamb or goat and record the tattoo number on the front of the DNA envelope.

*Scrapie tag numbers vary greatly, however each tag will include a state identified, herd number and animal number. The scrapie tag number on the DNA envelope must include the entire ID number as listed about and must EXACTLY match the number on the scrapie tag at check-in.

6. Any discrepancies at check-in will be the responsibility of the exhibitor and the animal may be disqualified from the show. Should additional DNA testing be allowed (only if approved by show officials and determined on an individual bases), the cost to the exhibitor will be $150 payable immediately by cash or credit card only. After testing is completed, any exhibitor showing an animal without a matching DNA sample will be subject to consequences determined by YLE management, including but not limited to, disqualification of animal, forfeiture of all monies, and suspension from showing at the Youth Livestock Expo.

7. Siblings (two or more individuals have one common parent) may submit DNA samples on the same animal if all siblings are involved in the care and management of the animal. Names and signatures of each sibling must appear on the DNA Validation Envelope when it is submitted. Siblings may submit DNA samples on the same animal but may not enter the same animal in the show. All DNA Validation Envelopes from the same family should be sent in the same envelope.
8. DNA provides proof of ownership. Except for the sibling rule above, market animals can only have DNA submitted by one exhibitor. If multiple DNA samples are received for the same animal by multiple exhibitors, the animal and the exhibitors may be disqualified from the show.
9. DNA validation does not constitute an entry in the 2022 Youth Livestock Expo. Regular entry procedures must be followed; early entry deadline is July 15th. Visit www.ecfair.org for more details on entering.
10. Should it be necessary to return your 2022 YLE DNA Validation Envelopes for any reason (lack of signatures, etc.) there will be a $10.00 reprocessing fee.

Note: DNA Validation Envelopes/ hair samples submitted to the Youth Livestock Expo on all junior market animals become property of the Youth Livestock Expo. Exhibitors relinquish any claim to said envelopes and samples when submitted as proof of ownership. Validation envelopes/samples are stored in a secured environment and are destroyed in due time following the show.

Release Schedule:

For your safety and the safety of the public the Erie County Fair has a release schedule protocol. This program was designed to eliminate the congestion of trucks and trailers on the Fairgrounds during release times. Each exhibitor will receive a time slot for release. Release times are given in 30-minute intervals. You will only be allowed into the Fairgrounds with your truck and trailer for that increment of time. The exhibitor's that have the longest travel time will receive the earliest time slots. Multiple trips will also be considered. It is in each exhibitor's best interest to help each other load animals and tack.
