Cultural Celebrations, Classic Car Shows and More Highlight Final Weekend of New Mexico State Fair

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. – There's still plenty of time to come out to the New Mexico State Fair where New Mexicans will find plenty to celebrate during the Fair's closing weekend. Here's a look at what's to come:

Car Shows: There are still two more car shows coming up at the State Fair. On Saturday, head to Main Street to check out the Hot Rods, Custom Cars and Classic Mustangs before Sunday's Classic Car, Truck and Corvair show.

Hispanic Heritage Celebration: Starting Friday, Sept. 15, with the Mariachi Sol de Mexico de Jose Hernandez and Mariachi Reyna de Los Angeles, the New Mexico State Fair and Hispanic Chamber of Commerce are kicking off Hispanic Heritage Celebrations. Then, on Saturday, head to Villa Hispana for a day of music and dancing headlined by Grammy Award nominee George Rivas and Darron Cordova y Calor.

New Mexico State Fair Powwow: Indian Village will host the annual State Fair Powwow on Saturday, Sept. 16. Grand Entry begins at 1 p.m. and Indian Village will be filled with beautiful Pageantry, traditional drums and ritual dances.

PRCA Rodeo and 311: On Saturday, Sept. 16, the PRCA Rodeo kicks off at 6:45 p.m. followed by 311. The PRCA Rodeo wraps up on Sunday, Sept. 17, with a matinee at 4 p.m.
