

NEW MEXICO STATE FAIR
Est. 1938

Susana Martinez
Governor

Michael Henningsen
Media Director
505.803.6355
michael.henningsen@state.nm.us

PO Box 8546
Albuquerque, NM 87198
www.exponm.com

For Immediate Release
Contact: Michael Henningsen

March 10, 2014
(505) 803-6355

Lt. Governor John A. Sanchez to Attend Arbor Day Celebration at EXPO New Mexico

- WHAT: EXPO New Mexico Arbor Day Celebration
- WHEN: Friday, March 14, 2014
- WHERE: Box Car Lawn area of EXPO New Mexico, just west of Main Street
- WHO: Lieutenant Governor John A. Sanchez, plus several other special guests, elected officials and local luminaries invited

Hosted by Keep New Mexico Beautiful, this year's Arbor Day celebration at EXPO New Mexico is expected to receive a visit from New Mexico Lieutenant Governor John A. Sanchez, along with a host of other special guests, elected officials and luminaries. Up to a dozen new trees donated by and purchased from various local nurseries visit will be planted as part of the celebration.

Arbor Day in New Mexico has been celebrated officially since the Territorial Legislature established its observance in 1891, 21 years before New Mexico became a state.