NEW MEXICO STATE FAIR ADDS CYPRESS HILL TO OUTSTANDING CONCERT LINEUP

The New Mexico State Fair announced iconic hip-hop group Cypress Hill will take the stage at the 2025 New Mexico State Fair for a night of unforgettable music, energy and classic hits. The concert is scheduled for Saturday, Sept. 6, following the Chevron PRCA Xtreme Bulls Rodeo inside Tingley Coliseum.

With a career spanning over three decades, Cypress Hill has cemented its place in music history as one of the most influential and groundbreaking hip-hop groups of all time. They were the first rap group to have two albums in the Billboard 200 top-10 at the same time and the first Latino-American hip-hop group to achieve platinum and multi-platinum success.

“We are thrilled to welcome Cypress Hill to this year’s Fair,” said General Manager Dan Mourning. “Their legendary status and unique sound will make for a night to remember!”
