As is traditional on the first day of the state fair, the Unique Foods Contest will take place at the Mattress Firm Pavilion. The Unique Foods Contest provides an opportunity for fair food vendors to compete amongst themselves to be crowned the reigning champion of creative culinary delights, which is no small task considering the vast array of delicious and unique cuisine options enjoyed by patrons each year at the New Mexico State Fair. The always exciting competition will kick off at noon. The contest is judged by a panel of local TV media personalities. This year's unique foods contest participants are as follows:

A new take on an old classic, this traditional Philly Cheesesteak is upgraded with added guacamole, bacon, jalapenos and green chile.

Wonderstick's "Wonderstick"

Rex's Hamburgers' "The Bexster"

Built on a quarter pound beef patty, this burger includes grilled mushrooms, onion, crispy bacon, avocado, American, Swiss and cheddar cheese, and is topped with a fried egg and green chile, served on a toasted bun.

Bringing Louisianan cuisine to New Mexico, this dish consist of crawfish, sautéed in butter and garlic, with sweet coleslaw on a corn tortilla, topped with fresh mango salsa.

Asbury Pie Café's "Peanut Butter Brownie Pie"

In line with Asbury's history at the fair, this innovative dessert features brownie infused with peanut butter, baked into a pie. A classic in the making.

Debuting tomorrow, for the first time, is the brand new Sky Ride Ski Lift System. The lift travels from the pavilion to the agricultural section of the fairgrounds, via Main Street. It stands 40 feet tall and provides fairgoers with a unique opportunity to experience the fair in a completely new way. Tickets to the Sky Ride are $5.00 for a one way trip, while a roundtrip will cost $8.00

Also new to this year's fair is the brand new Euroslide, which is the tallest portable slide in the country. This seven story carpet slide features 8 lanes of fast-paced, sliding fun for the whole family. The New Mexico State Fair is one of the only fairs in the country to feature the slide this year.

Finally, the New Mexico State Fair is happy to announce Graze Days. During both Thursdays of the fair, September 6 and 13, every food vendor across the fair has created a food item which is priced at a very low $3.00. This gives fairgoers the opportunity to sample and try more of the great food at the fair, while spending less. The Graze Days promotion lasts from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
