Twelfth Annual Eyewitness News Health Fair Takes Place at EXPO New Mexico This Weekend

ALBUQUERQUE, NM – EXPO New Mexico is once again proud to host the Eyewitness News 4 Health Fair this year, the 12th annual such event to be held in Albuquerque, bringing together hundreds of local, regional and national healthcare educators and providers serving New Mexicans in a wide variety of ways.

“We’re proud to be the home of positive community events like the Eyewitness News Health Fair throughout the year, and happy that we can offer thousands of New Mexicans the opportunity to take advantage of hundreds of lifesaving tests and screenings, free flu shots and information important to their health,” said EXPO General Manager Craig Swagerty.

The Eyewitness News 4 Health Fair takes place Saturday and Sunday, January 22 and 23 in the Manuel Lujan Exhibition Complex. Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is $5. Seniors receive a $1 admission discount on Saturday. Children 12 and under are free. $1 Discount Coupons available to the public at all UNM Hospitals and Clinics, TriCore Reference Laboratories, YMCA and Good Neighbor Pharmacy locations. Hundreds of exhibitors will be on-hand, and you can check your family’s risk for diabetes, heart disease, prostate cancer and more with discounted lab tests, take advantage of free flu shots, get gym and health club information, donate blood and more. Schedule of available tests and associated fees, list of exhibitors and map of exhibitor booths attached.
