SOCIAL MEDIA POLICIES

Hey Fans! Tulsa County Public Facilities Authority (TCPFA) supports the use of social media technologies to increase member engagement, build community and improve access to information, resulting in greater value to our members in the public. We are glad to have you on our fan page and we encourage you to leave comments, photos, videos and links. In order to keep the page fun and lively, we ask that you respect the rules of each social media site as well as our policies below. Any content that conflicts with these policies will be removed at our sole discretion and fans that repeatedly violate the policies will be denied participation on this page.

TCPFA Social Media Policies:

- We appreciate your involvement and welcome varying points of view appropriate for publication on a social media platform, relevant to the discussion and respectful of others in the community. We accept constructive criticism, but please do so in a polite and constructive manner; remember this site is a Fan page. If you have major or lengthy criticisms or concerns, please contact the TCPFA Administrative Office.
- Although we may remove inappropriate material, we are not obligated to do so. Understand you are personally responsible for the material you post. What you publish will be widely accessible for some time and in some cases, indefinitely.
- Material deemed to be – unlawful, obscene, defamatory, threatening, abusive, slanderous, damaging, offensive, explicit or embarrassing to another person or entity will be blocked or deleted at our sole discretion.
- Private information belonging to any other individual or entity including but not limited to phone numbers, email addresses, social security numbers, date of birth or physical residence addresses, will also be removed.
- TCPFA is a family oriented entity. The following posts will not be allowed – posts which contain profanity or inappropriate content meant to intimidate or harass an individual or group, “SPAM”, chain letters, pyramid schemes, advertisements and business solicitations of any type. If you have items you would like to present to TCPFA, please contact the Administrative Office.
- If something posted seems factually questionable, it may be deleted to avoid any negative repercussions. We work hard to provide truthful and factual communication in all our posts and we ask you do the same. All posts by page administrators will appear next to the official page icon. We encourage our social audience to be aware of imposter or scam accounts impersonating any of the TCPFA social accounts. Please report and block any of these accounts as they are against all social media platforms community standards.
- Make sure you have the right to use material before publishing. Always give proper credit for other’s work.
- TCPFA will never require a form of payment, banking information, or any personal details outside of your full name and email address to receive a social giveaway prize.

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICIES

Our goal is to share with the community information about our event and we encourage your feedback; not sales pitches and business advertisements. We pledge to be open to valued members of our community about how we manage our social media channels. If you have any questions or concerns, please message us on the social media platform pertaining to your question or concern.

Please note: This policy is subject to change. TCPFA reserves the right to add or modify the current policy and to remove or block content and individuals that do not comply with these policies or that we judge, in our sole discretion, to be obscene, libelous or rude. We do not edit posts; if your posts appear in one of our social media channels, they are your words.

All comments, visuals, videos and other type of material posted by fans on this site do not necessarily reflect the opinions or ideals of TCPFA, its employees or affiliates. TCPFA does not represent or warrant the accuracy of any statement or product claim made here and is not responsible for any fan content on this site.
