

Co-Chairmen:
Kent Ohnheiser
Leo J. Wick

Livestock Department

Committee: All Livestock Committee Chairmen

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. All entries and awards made in this department shall be subject to the General Rules and Regulations as published in this catalog.
2. Arrival and release times: See individual department or show rules.
3. UNDER TEXAS LAW (CHAPTER 87, CIVIL PRACTICE AND REMEDIES CODE), A LIVESTOCK SHOW SPONSOR OR AN EQUINE PROFESSIONAL IS NOT LIABLE FOR AN INJURY TO OR THE DEATH OF A PARTICIPANT IN A LIVESTOCK SHOW OR IN EQUINE ACTIVITIES RESULTING FROM THE INHERENT RISKS OF LIVESTOCK SHOW OR EQUINE ACTIVITIES. THE FAYETTE COUNTY FAIR WILL NOT BE HELD LEGALLY RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY DAMAGES OR INJURIES TO ANY PERSONS, PERSONAL PROPERTIES, EXHIBITORS, EXHIBITS OR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITED AT THE FAIR.
4. All Texas Animal Health Commission Rules and Regulations governing county fairs and expositions will apply to all livestock entered at the Fayette County Fair. Consult your Agricultural Science Teacher, County Extension Agent, or local Veterinarian concerning health requirements and proper health papers.
5. Ownership of animals: See individual department or show rules.
6. Sand bedding will be furnished by the Fair, and exhibitors will be required to keep their space and stalls in a clean and sanitary condition by removing therefrom all filth and litter and place in front of said space or stall where the scavenger force of the management may get it with ease.
7. All stalls and pen space will be determined by department chairmen. See department rules.
8. Animals that cannot be properly controlled by the exhibitor will not be permitted to show.
9. No Refund on Entry Fees.

10. First premiums shall be awarded to any animal when exhibited by the owner without competition, with other owners of animals, only when the judge deems the animal worthy of first prize money.
11. Unless otherwise stated, the date of determining age of animals in a class shall be the opening date of the Fair.
12. Each exhibitor will receive one exhibitor day pass for the Fair.
13. Additional exhibitor's day passes will be available at the livestock office for $10.00 each (maximum of 2).
14. No exhibitor, committee person, fair director, or worker will be permitted to leave any motor vehicle unattended on the fairgrounds at any time. Limited vehicle access to the cattle and loading area will be allowed during the designated setup times. Any vehicle found unattended will be subject to immediate towing at the owner's expense. No vehicles will be allowed upon the fairgrounds for the purpose of carrying feed or other equipment except during the designated loading and unloading times. Access into the livestock area by motor vehicle will be permitted through the gate designated as No. 2. Persons using this gate will be required to comply with all instructions received from the gate personnel. All gate personnel have been provided with strict instructions as to the proper procedure for permitting vehicle access to the fairgrounds and no exceptions will be granted at any time without written authorization from the Fair President, one of the Fair's officers, or the Chief of Fair Security.
15. Members who graduated in May previous to the show will be eligible to show in the show (exception of poultry and pigeon shows).
16. Shavings: Only pelletized shavings will be allowed at the Leo Wick Barn. Exhibitors will be required to keep their space and stalls in a clean and sanitary condition.