Charity Guild of Catholic Women awards $547,599 during Grant Presentation to 47 Houston organizations

Charity Guild of Catholic Women, founded in 1922, this year celebrating its Centennial Anniversary, awarded $547,599 to 47 Houston-area non-profit organizations to fund programs that assist children in need. The presentation took place Tuesday, February 1st at 10 a.m. at the Charity Guild Shop located at 1203 Lovett Blvd. This year's president, Ginger Niemann, presented the awards. Since 1996, the Charity Guild of Catholic Women has donated over $6,576,793 to 170 local charities via profits from its Charity Guild Shop. Some of the recipients include Harrison's Heroes, Clashed by Faith, Houston Furniture Bank, Second Savings, Be an Angel, Cherish our Children, Child Advocates of Ft. Bend, and Noizi Home.

With nearly 610 members from 64 parishes in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston, Charity Guild of Catholic Women provided 75,209 hours of volunteer service just this past year. The organization provides dedicated volunteerism to benefit children in the greater Houston area who might otherwise lack access to enough food, safe and acceptable housing, affordable healthcare, adequate clothing, satisfactory education, supportive recreation and enrichment services, and restorative and psychological assistance, regardless of race or creed.

Katy's beloved community celebration, the 23rd bi-annual Katy Sip n' Stroll, presented by Keller Williams and Kroger, is set for Saturday, April 23rd at The ARK by Norris event center. There's so much to love! This all-inclusive ticket to your passport to 300 wine, beer, and spirits selections for your tasting pleasure along with 35 local restaurants and caterers serving up deliciousness as they compete for the annual Premier Culinary Awards, the coveted trophy and bragging rights. Attendees taste just what the judges do, and what a treat!

Two Live Music Stages keep the crowd singing along with Shang & Byron - The 2 Man Band on the Anika Tour Live Music Stage and Katy's own award-winning singer-songwriter Kristin Hart on the American Furniture Warehouse Back Lot Music Stage. J.R. Entertainment brings DJ party sounds inside.

Other features include All Things Bubbly, presented by Freixenet-Moët USA with dozens of sparkling wines. Sweet Tooth Alley boasts dozens and sweet Butlers to satisfy any sweet tooth. Stroll through The Sparks Patio sipping on the latest trending flavors. For those who enjoy the best of the best, upgrade to the VIP Zone for lounge seating, premium wine and food selections plus an hour early access to the entire event.

This is a party with a purpose benefiting The Ballard House whose mission is to provide temporary housing in our community with a warm, safe environment for individuals and their families who are hospitalized or awaiting treatment for serious medical condition. You can help support The Ballard House at Sip n' Stroll through the wine pull or party wagonaffle and they receive 100% of the funds. Sponsorships, deluxe hospitality tents, and restaurant reservations are available - all for one price - get your tickets early at www.sipandstroll.com.

ART CAR PARADE ROARS BACK INTO DOWNTOWN HOUSTON

Art Cars are back! The Orange Show Center for Visionary Art is thrilled to announce the long-awaited 10th Annual Houston Art Car Parade Weekend presented by Team Gilman will take place on April 3-5, 2022 following a two-year hiatus due to COVID-19. The Orange Show's signature event - Houston's most iconic and beloved annual celebrations - returns with a vibrant lineup of events and activations that will celebrate and showcase over 250 mobile masterpieces from across the country and engage the public with opportunities to express their personal artistic vision.

This year the Houston Art Car Parade presented by Team Gilman is dedicated to the late Ann Harthaus, a leading figure in Texas' art community whose efforts to support and create new art organizations inspired the Houston Art Car Parade's grand return will be permanently named the Ann Harthaus Legacy Award and given out annually at the Art Car Awards Ceremony. Harthaus was an artist, collector and curator who is credited with organizing one of the first public exhibitions of Art Cars in Houston in the early 1980s, resulting in a wave of Art Cars being seen on Houston streets.

Thirty-five years since it started in 1986 as a small gathering of 20 artists and a little over a thousand fans, Houston's Art Car Parade maintains its place as one of the city's largest free public events, drawing hundreds of thousands of curious spectators to see, hear and revel in the magic of Art Cars. This year, the annual Spring event will feature a large contingent of show, food, & beverage masterpieces - plus car boom out of Houston's vibrant contributions to American car culture whose notoriety over the past decade has brought it to the forefront of popular culture - and more than 100 new and never-before-seen Art Cars from around the country like Texas, Alaska and other groups, talented craftspersons, bespoke restorers and custom-crafted artists along with the far covered, metal-modified, fire-breathing vehicles.

The complete lineup of Art Cars will be available on the Houston Art Car Parade website - www.houstonartcarparade.com in advance of Houston Art Car Parade weekend.
