Purpose

The purpose of the Fort Bend County Fair Queen Scholarship Contest is to select a Fair Queen to represent the Fort Bend County Fair and provide scholarships to winning contestants.

Duration

The dates of competition for the Fort Bend County Fair Queen Scholarship Contest will begin on the first day of registration, no later than the mandatory workshop, and end on Friday, September 24, 2021, at the end of coronation ceremonies and completion of Grand Entry.

Eligibility

The Fort Bend County Fair Queen Contest is opened to the first twenty (20) participants who meet the below eligibility requirements.

All entries to the Fort Bend County Fair Queen Contest are subject to the Fort Bend County Fair Association General Rules and Regulations, Fort Bend County Fair Association Scholarship Rules, as well as the following Fort Bend County Fair Queen Scholarship Contest Rules:

1. Fair Queen Candidates must be at least 15 years of age and not more than 19 years of age on September 1, 2021. A certified copy of birth record may be requested.
2. Fair Queen Candidates must be U.S. Citizens and reside in Fort Bend County.

3. Fair Queen Candidates must be (and always have been) female as recorded on birth certificate.
4. Fair Queen Candidates must be attending high school.
5. Fair Queen Candidates may never have been married or have had children or be pregnant at the time of the Fort Bend County Fair. If the Fair Queen becomes pregnant or is married during her reign, she will be required to relinquish her title and her scholarship and will immediately cease and desist her representation as Fair Queen. The remainder of the Fair Queen's scholarship will pass to the 1st Runner Up.
6. Fair Queen Candidates and the Fair Queen must not have been charged with or convicted of any criminal offense. This includes but is not limited to misdemeanors (such as minor-in-possession, driving under the influence, criminal mischief, destruction of property, etc.; apart from minor traffic violations). Additionally, there must be no adjudications presently pending against the candidate.
7. Any individual having been crowned Fort Bend County Fair Queen is not eligible to be a Fair Queen Candidate again.
8. Fair Queen Candidates must provide their sealed official transcript to show academic eligibility. Transcript is due at the fair office by the first event; in addition, they must maintain a minimum grade-point average of 2.5 and follow the rules as outlined by the Fort Bend County Fair Association Scholarship Rules. Please note that such transcript can be requested at any time by the Fort Bend County Fair Manager.
9. Fair Queen Candidates MAY NOT use alcohol, any form of illegal drugs, smoke, vapor, or use tobacco in any form. Zero tolerance policy will be enforced and should the situation arise, candidate will be notified immediately and may result in candidate being disqualified.
10. Fair Queen Candidates must agree to be personally interviewed by the judges and understand that the decision of the judging panel is final.
11. Fair Queen Candidates must be of good moral character. If any candidate or Fair Queen is deemed to participate in inappropriate comments, immoral or indecent acts or behavior in any way, including but not limited to on Social Media (Facebook, Twitter and the like) that candidate will be ineligible for contest. If any Fair Queen Candidate is found to have engaged in any immoral or indecent acts, the Fair Queen Candidates may be found ineligible.
12. Any Fair Queen Candidate or Fair Queen shall abstain from public displays of affection toward their boyfriend or significant other during the Fair week and while participating at any Fair function throughout the year.
13. Any Fair Queen Candidate who may be related to any Fort Bend County Fair Board Member or Queen Committee member will not be eligible to participate unless the Board Member or committee member abstains during discussions of the Contest and judging. Said Board Member may not vote on any matter that concerns the Contest or the Fair Queen.
14. Any Fair Queen who has relinquished a title by choice or who is removed as Fair Queen by the Fort Bend County Fair Board of Directors will be barred from participating in any future Fort Bend County Fair Queen Scholarship Contests.

As evidence by placing my initials at the place provided, I am stating that I have read and understand the contents of this page. Candidate _____ Parent/Guardian _____

15. A newly chosen Fair Queen agrees to participate in parades, attend civic functions, and attend meetings throughout her reign. Failure to attend and participate in the required events may result in the relinquishment of the title and may jeopardize scholarship awards.

GRADE INELIGIBILITY: Fair Queen Candidates must have a minimum grade-point average of 2.5 to enter the Contest and must maintain said grade-point average. While the Texas Education Agency interpretation on extracurricular activities (as distributed May 2, 1985 and detailed under Update Number 2 example 1 and explanation 6 on page 240) remains intact, the following rule must be in effect for the Fort Bend County Fair. A Scholastically Ineligible Student will not be allowed to participate.

Duties – Fort Bend County Fair Queen

The Fort Bend County Fair Queen will serve a term of one year as an ambassador of the Fort Bend County Fair. The Fair Queen is also expected to attend other Fair sponsored events throughout the year, a list of which will be provided. The Fair Queen will also serve on the Fort Bend County Fair Association Queen Committee for the following year.

Attendance at the following year’s coronation, participation in the following year’s parade, and participation in other events as deemed by the Fair Queen Committee are also mandatory. The previous year’s Fair Queen will be provided a horse and carriage to be ridden in the Fort Bend County Fair Parade paid for by the Fair Queen Committee.

The Fair Queen is to be escorted at all times by a member of the Fort Bend County Fair Queen Committee while attending any function during the Fort Bend County Fair in her capacity as Fort Bend County Fair Queen.

By accepting the Fair Queen title and other rewards, the Fair Queen understands and agrees that her behavior during her reign is a reflection on herself, her family, her school and Fort Bend County. She must agree to behave accordingly, as a good role model and upstanding citizen. As such, the Fair Queen must not partake of alcoholic beverages, use tobacco products, or use any type of illegal drug while representing Fort Bend County Fair at any function.

The Fort Bend County Fair Board of Directors may remove the Fair Queen from the position if the Board determines, in its sole discretion, that the Fair Queen has engaged in conduct that casts the Fort Bend County Fair in a negative light, the Fair Queen is not an appropriate role model and upstanding citizen, or the Fair Queen has violated any rules applicable to the Fair Queen, including, but not limited to, those contained in this document.

If for any reason the chosen Fair Queen is unable to fulfill her duties or is removed from the position by the Fort Bend County Fair Board of Directors, any scholarship amount to be awarded will be pro rated in accordance with the length of time the chosen Fair Queen has served. The remainder of the scholarship amount that was to be awarded will be awarded to the 1st Runner Up. Further, if the chosen Fair Queen is unable and/or unwilling to fulfill her term or if she is removed from the position by the Fort Bend County Fair Board of Directors, she is to return the Crown and Sash to the Fort Bend County Fair Association no later than five (5) business days from date of notification. Failure to return the above-mentioned items in a timely manner will compel the Fort Bend County Fair Association to order a duplicate crown and sash which will be billed to the outgoing Queen. In the event the Fair Queen is removed or unable to fulfill her duties for any reason she may no longer represent herself as the Fort Bend County Queen or as a former Fort Bend County Fair Queen.

Duties – Fort Bend County Fair Queen Candidates

All Fair Queen Candidates are required to attend the Fair Queen Mandatory Workshop. Photos will be taken at the Fair Queen Workshop and will be used to assist the judges in the scoring process. Candidates, as well, must attend the following: Fort Bend County Fair Sponsor Party, the Life Member and Committeeman's Dance, Kick Off Event at Silver Eagle, Fort Bend County Fair Parade and Fair Queen Coronation events including Grand Entry immediately following the Fair Queen Coronation Ceremony and other events as assigned. Other required events will be disclosed during the required Fair Queen Workshop to be held Sunday, TBD

All candidates must participate in the Fair Parade on Friday, September 24, 2021. The contestants must ride on a float, which is to be provided by the Fair Queen Committee. All candidates will be required to assist in the decoration of said float. All candidates are required to ride on the provided float. The chosen Fair Queen will represent the Fort Bend County Fair by being present at several activities during the Fair, to include but not limited to, auctions, receptions, rodeo events, livestock judging, etc., and other events that may be requested by the Fort Bend County Fair Association.

The introduction of all Fort Bend County Fair Queen Candidates, coronation of the Fair Queen and the presentation of the runner-up and Miss Congeniality will be at 6:00 p.m. on Friday, September 24, 2021. All Fair Queen Candidates are required to participate in the coronation ceremonies. The location of the coronation will be provided to the Candidates at the initial meeting of the Candidates held on Sunday, July 11, 2021. The interview will take place at the Fort Bend County Fairgrounds on September 18, 2021, time TBD.

In the event of a natural disaster or other unavoidable event, the Fort Bend County Fair Association Executive Committee may change the dates and times of the contest, parade, coronation and other activities associated with the Fort Bend County Fair Queens Scholarship Contest. It is the responsibility of the Fair Queen Candidate to provide the Queens Committee with at least two valid telephone numbers, mailing address and appropriate email addresses at which they can be reached, as well as valid contact information for the Fair Queen Candidate's legal guardian. It is the responsibility of the Fair Queen Candidate to remain in contact with the Director(s) in Charge, Chairman and/or the Fort Bend County Fair Office to obtain any changes in locations, obligations, dates, times and rules. Fair Queen Candidates will be issued a sash at the initial meeting and will be charged $50 if the item is lost or damaged. The sash is the property of the Fort Bend County Fair Association and must be turned in prior to coronation.

Selection Criteria

The Fort Bend County Fair Queen will be selected based upon a pre-determined scoring system outlined in this document.

Each Fair Queen Candidate will receive an individual score based upon scores obtained through the events outlined. Participation points will be determined at each event by the Fort Bend County Fair Queen Committee. The Interview, Essay, and Networking sections of the competition will be conducted by judges. No judge will reside in or be affiliated with Fort Bend County for the purposes of this competition. These scores will be the criteria used to select the Fort Bend County Fair Queen.

The Fort Bend County Fair Queen and her court will be crowned according to the following criteria:

1. Points will be awarded to each Fair Queen Candidate based upon the following scale:

As evidence by placing my initials at the place provided, I am stating that I have read and understand the contents of this page. Candidate _____ Parent/Guardian _____

- A. Interview scored by a panel of judges – up to 50 points. These interview sessions will be scheduled for all Fair Queen Candidates. Interview points will be averaged for each contestant.
- Ability to converse – possible 20 points
 - Personality – possible 15 points
 - Poise - possible 15 points
- B. Essay scored by a panel of judges – up to 30 points. Judging is based on an essay written in 1000 to 1200 words within the body of essay itself “What My Fair Means to My Community”. Guidelines will be provided by committee. Essay points will be averaged for each contestant.
- C. Presentation scored by a panel of judges – up to 20 points. This will take place at the Networking Event. Presentation points will be averaged for each contestant.
- Impromptu Question and Showmanship– possible 10 points
 - Appearance – possible 5 points
 - Poise – possible 5 points
- D. Participation – up to 10 points. Participation points will be accumulated from the mandatory workshop of all queen candidates until prior to coronation. Sign in sheets will be provided at all required events to verify their attendance. Failure to be punctual, wearing required attire and attendance throughout the event or events such as; but not limited to meetings, appearances and practices will determine point accumulation. Fair Queen Committee decisions are final. Participation points will be averaged for each contestant. Points are based on the following:
- Attendance
 - Participation
 - Punctuality
 - Specified Attire
- E. Community Service – 5 points. Points are based on completion of form completed by organizations. Organizations must be approved by the Chairmen or Director(s) in Charge of Queen’s committee. It is absolutely prohibited for any person of said approved organization to evaluate / complete community service form if related to candidate in any way.
- 30 hours of community service – 5 points

In case of a tie in total score or in any category, placement will be determined by the points awarded according to Interview score first and will continue in order referenced above.
