Rough Stock Riders Shine at Fort Worth's ProRodeo Tournament

FORT WORTH, Texas, Jan. 28, 2022 — On Friday, visitors to the Fort Worth Stock Show & Rodeo (FWSSR) could watch two performances of the (FWSSR) Pro Rodeo Tournament. The fourth bracket of contestants had their second round of competition at 2 p.m. to determine who would advance to next week. A fifth bracket of contestants competed in their first round at 7:30 p.m. and will return Saturday morning at 11 a.m. for their second round.

Punching his ticket to the February 3-4 semifinals in decisive fashion was Chad Rutherford of Hillsboro. The bareback rider scored 89 points on Pickett Pro Rodeo's horse Shady Nights to win the second round. That win doubled the $1,760 he earned Thursday night when he won the first round. Utah's Mason Clements joins him in the semifinals after winning money in both rounds and Wyatt Denny of Minden, Nevada, advances to the wild card round on February 2.

Breakaway roper Lari Dee Guy of Abilene made another 1.9-second run to win her event for the second consecutive performance. The hall of fame cowgirl goes on to the semifinals along with Kayelen Helton of Stephenville.
