

En Vogue & Exposé Table Mountain Concert Series Presented by Modelo Especial, Toyota and Valero

En Vogue with special guest Exposé kickoff night two at the 2023 Big Fresno Fair on Thursday, October 5 at 7 p.m. as part of the Table Mountain Concert Series presented by Modelo Especial, Toyota and Valero!

This will be a throwback night for the books! Formed in 1989 in the Bay Area, En Vogue began their official takeover in 1990 with their hit single, “Hold On” from their critically-acclaimed debut album, Born to Sing, which reached No. 1 on both the Dance and R&B/Hip-Hop charts. In their career, En Vogue has sold over 20 million physical albums. More impressively, they have transitioned effortlessly into the digital age, garnering over 30 million streams and 26 million plus YouTube views for their Top six singles alone, which, in addition to “Hold On,” includes “Free Your Mind,” “Never Gonna Get It,” “Giving Him Something He Can Feel,” “Don’t Let Go” and “Whatta Man (feat. Salt-N-Pepa).”

Exposé started their musical journey in the mid-to-late 1980s, becoming the first group in history to have four Top 10 hits on their debut album, surpassing records originally set by The Beatles and The Supremes. In a time when rock and roll dominated the charts, Exposé brought dance music into the spotlight and music would never be the same. Exposé actively toured and recorded music from 1985 to 1995 while topping the Top 40, R&B and Adult Contemporary charts in the US and throughout the world. Along with their No. 1 smash hit, “Seasons Change,” Exposé became the first girl group to have seven back-to-back Top 10 hits on the Billboard Hot 100.
