

Walker Hayes Table Mountain Concert Series Presented by Modelo Especial and Toyota

Iconic country music singer Walker Hayes is making his Big Fresno Fair debut on Wednesday, October 2 at 7 p.m. as part of the Table Mountain Concert Series presented by Modelo Especial and Toyota.

Walker Hayes, a singer-songwriter signed with Monument Records and originally hailing from Mobile, Alabama, entered the music industry when he and his wife, Laney Beville, relocated to Nashville in 2005 with aspirations of pursuing a career in country music. By 2010, he had signed with Capitol Records Nashville and released his debut single, "Pants," which peaked at No. 60 on the Hot Country Songs charts. After parting ways with Capitol Records, Hayes secured a publishing and production deal with Shane McAnally and SMACK/RareSpark in 2016. This partnership led to his first single under Monument Records, "You Broke Up with Me," which became his breakthrough hit on the Billboard charts and is featured on his inaugural Monument album, Boom (2017).

It wasn't until 2021 when he achieved significant success with his chart-topping hit "Fancy Like". The song dominated country music sales and streaming charts, held the No. 1 position on the Billboard Hot Country Songs Chart for over six months, reached the top 5 on Billboard's Hot 100 Songs, topped country radio charts, and earned Hayes his first GRAMMY Award nomination for Best Country Song. Additionally, "Fancy Like" was prominently featured in a nationwide Applebee's commercial. Following this success, Hayes continued to excel with subsequent singles such as "AA," "Y'all Life," and "Good With Me," solidifying his status as one of the most commercially successful and streamed artists in country music.
