

Fine Arts & Photography See the Best Art and Photography in all of Fresno County!

Stroll through the vast collections of paintings, sculptures, photography and more on display in the Fine Arts & Photography building. Here's a sneak peek at what exciting displays will be featured and which contests will be taking place at the 2022 Big Fresno Fair.

Blossom Trail Art Contest

This contest is to draw awareness and an appreciation for the beauty of the Blossom Trail and the agricultural landscape of the San Joaquin Valley. The first-place winner takes home $700, while their artwork becomes the 2022 Blossom Trail Poster.

"On With The Show!" Competition

This art competition calls on the best original artwork to depict the 2022 Big Fresno Fair's competitive exhibit's theme "On With The Show!". Entries can be in any medium and is open to any interested artist - both beginner and professional. Come showcase your artistic talent and show the judges what the Fair theme means to you!

High School Chalk Art Competition sponsored by Allards

A favorite of Fairgoers, come watch these talented young artists create masterpieces around the Pavilion and then all art pieces will be up for auction to raise money for the schools' art programs. The High School Chalk Art Competition, sponsored by Allards, will take place in the Pavilion Area on Thursday, October 13 from 8 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Muralist Megan Mendes

Come see local muralist Megan Mendes in action during the 2022 Big Fresno Fair.

Spectrum Gallery & Camera Club Feature

See professional artists and photographers on display! Both Spectrum Galley and the Camera Club will have pieces from local professionals on display for Fairgoers to enjoy!
