

Midland Table Mountain Concert Series Presented by Modelo Especial & Toyota

On Wednesday, October 12, Academy of Country Music Award winner, Midland, is set to perform in the Paul Paul Theater at The Big Fresno Fair as part of the Table Mountain Concert Series presented by Modelo Especial and Toyota!

A trio of friends from Dripping Springs, Texas featuring lead vocalist Mark Wystrach, guitarist/vocalist Jess Carson and bass player/vocalist Cameron Duddy. Since releasing their debut album On the Rocks in 2017, Midland's blend of '70s country-rock song structures and tightly stacked harmonies – with a dose of country traditionalism thrown in for good measure – have brought the group two Top 5 hits on Billboard's Country Airplay chart ("Drinkin' Problem" and "Burn Out"); the No. 1 position on Billboard's Top Country Album Sales chart for their sophomore album Let It Roll (2019) and earned praise from outlets such as Rolling Stone, Variety, NPR and Entertainment Weekly.

Midland's 2x Platinum-certified chart-topping debut "Drinkin' Problem" earned the band their first Grammy Awards nomination for "Best Country Song" and "Best Country Duo/Group Performance"; the hit single also garnered over 152 million views on YouTube to date. Midland was named "New Vocal Group of the Year" at the 2018 ACM Awards and was nominated for Vocal Group of the Year at the 2020 CMA Awards. In March 2021, Midland released the documentary film The Sonic Ranch, which detailed their origin and first recording session at the Sonic Ranch studio in Tornillo, Texas. On July 16, 2021, Midland released The Last Resort, a five-song collection and the title of their Fall tour.

Midland has been described by Rolling Stone as "the Texas-based bands that blend their voices to produce music that recalls a mix of George Strait, Urban Cowboy and '70s yacht rock." They are also known for their dressing style and have been called heartthrobs and fashion risk takers by Vogue. Don't miss this chance to see them LIVE at the 2022 Big Fresno Fair!
