

Phil Wickham Table Mountain Concert Series Presented by Toyota

Phil Wickham will make his appearance to The Big Fresno Fair on Friday, October 14 at 7 p.m. as part of the Table Mountain Concert Series presented by Toyota!

Since his self-titled debut in 2006, Phil Wickham has emerged as a leader in the modern worship movement, capturing countless songs that have been sung in churches all around the world. His Gold-certified single, “This Is Amazing Grace”, was his first career No. 1, holding the top spot on the charts for 13 consecutive weeks and was named Billboard’s No. 1 “Christian Airplay Song of the Year” in 2014 and BMI’s “Christian Song of the Year” in 2015, while the anthemic “Living Hope” earned him a GMA Dove Award for “Worship Recorded Song of the Year” in 2019. Combining a strong sense of artistic vision with emotive lyrics, his discography now includes eight full-length projects, multiple Christmas releases and a series of popular Singalong records that capture Wickham’s songs doing what they were always meant to do—giving people language to sing to God.

Wickham creates ample space for this encounter to happen across Hymn of Heaven. Although some of the songs were written during a somber season, the album’s sonic landscape isn’t subdued. “House of the Lord” is perhaps one of the most ebullient songs Wickham has ever recorded as he proclaims: “There’s joy in the house of the Lord. There’s joy in the house of the Lord today. And we won’t be quiet. We shout out Your praise.”

The album’s lead single, “Battle Belongs,” follows a similar up-tempo trajectory. Before Hymn of Heaven even released, “Battle Belongs” had already topped five different radio charts for multiple weeks, reflecting the power of the song’s appeal.

Wickham hopes he’s written proclamations of praise that will remind people that this world is not our home, but in the meantime, he stresses that any place people find themselves can become a sanctuary—holy ground for the spirit of God to inhabit.
