Table Mountain Concert Series Presented by Modelo Especial, Toyota and Valero

Witness as iconic Norteño music legends Ramon Ayala and Los Traileros Del Norte come together for a cultural night of lively music at the Big Fresno Fair on Sunday, October 15 at 7 p.m. as part of the Table Mountain Concert Series presented by Modelo Especial, Toyota and Valero!

Legendary Norteño musician Ramón Ayala has been making Norteño and Conjunto music for over 50 years. Known as the “King of the Accordion,” Ayala defined Norteño music with signature songs and definitive instrumental styles that have made him a superstar on both sides of the Rio Grande. He’s recorded over 113 albums and received four Grammy Awards. A legend of Norteño music, Ayala is one of the most recognized and best-selling artists of this genre of Mexican music, breaking many record sales along the way. Some of Ramón Ayala y Sus Bravos del Norte’s top hits include “Casa De Madera,” “Tragos Amargos,” “Trieste Recuerdos,” “Bonita Finca de Adobe” and “Mi Golandrina” to name a few!

Los Traileros del Norte are a renowned Norteño group from Monterrey, Nuevo León, Mexico. With over 30 years of experience and 15 albums to their name, the band has solidified its position as a Norteño music mainstay. The origins of the group's name, which translates to 'The Truck Drivers from The North,' are rooted in the members' previous jobs in the trucking industry. As the group discovered its talent as a unit, they exchanged their “trailes” for a career filled with fan admiration and a success. Admirers of Los Traileros del Norte have also referred to the group as "The Gentlemen of a Different Style".
