All off-duty officers working private security within the grounds of the Galveston County Fair & Rodeo must adhere to the following rules:

1. A Private Security Form must be submitted on or before the Chief Cook’s Meeting on Sunday, March 30, 2025. A copy of this form will be provided to the Director of Security, Co-Director of Security and the Cook-off Superintendent for the Galveston County Fair & Rodeo, Inc. If the Private Security Form is not submitted by this date, the off-duty officer will not be permitted to work the private security. An officer, of the Director of Security’s choosing, will be placed in the cook-off spot. The party’s host will be responsible for paying such officer a rate of $40.00 an hour with a minimum of four (4) hours.
2. All private security must have knowledge of the Cook-off Superintendent prior to them working the event.
3. If a situation arises and other law enforcement officers are needed, the officers manning the cook-off spot will request the assistance of Law Enforcement working on behalf of the Galveston County Fair & Rodeo, Inc. and/or Local Law Enforcement.
4. If a situation arises and an arrest is made it will be the sole responsibility of the officer working the private security to handle the incident appropriately. Law Enforcement working on behalf of the Galveston County Fair & Rodeo, Inc. and/or Local Law Enforcement may provide assistance.
5. If a situation is not resolved to the satisfaction of the Director of Security, Co-Director of Security and the Cook-off Superintendent, the officer working private security may be released from duty.
6. The Cook-off Team/Chief Cook agrees to abide by these rules.
