Culinary Rules also govern these competitions. PLEASE NOTE: IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO READ AND UNDERSTAND THE RULES. If you have questions, you may certainly e-mail us at: contests@gnfa.com.

Please help us prevent entry disqualifications.

2. The basic rules of food safety must be followed. All meat, fish, poultry, milk, egg, and vegetable dishes must be kept cold (below 40 degrees F) or hot (above 140 degrees F). This means that ice chests or other insulated containers must be used when transporting or holding food. There will be no access to electricity available at the Fairgrounds. Hair must be covered or secured. Gloves must be worn when handling food. Gloves will be provided for live contests, if needed. For information on food safety, contact your County Extension Agent.

3. Cooking contests are open to amateurs and to professionals unless stated otherwise in a contest. Exhibitors must decide under which category they will enter. Professionals, along with amateurs who have reached the highest level of cooking arts, should enter the "OPEN" Division; i.e., past sweepstakes winners or winners of multiple first place ribbons. Contestants who accumulate 15 blue ribbons over a 5 year period will be automatically moved up to the Open Division. Officials reserve the right to move entries up if warranted.

4. For live contests, unless there is a Youth Division listed, contestants must have reached their 16th birthday by October 1, 2022.

5. Exhibitors ages 12-18 enter in the Youth Baking Divisions. Young cooks must have reached their twelfth birthday before October 1, 2022, to compete, unless stated otherwise in a contest.

6. Unless otherwise stated in individual contest information, online registration will end at 11:59 PM 3 days before the receiving date, or 3 days before the contest date for live contests.

7. Pre-registration is strongly recommended.

8. For live contests, entries arriving after the stated end of receiving time will have an automatic 10 point deduction and still must be in place before judges enter the judging area. For contests with presentation, entry must be placed by the time stated for placing. All contestants must be out of the judging area before stated start of judging time. Dishes not registered and in place before judging begins will not be judged.

9. Please be aware - to keep traffic moving, the Georgia State Patrol may direct you to an area other than the West parking lot to park. You may have to transport your entry across the fair grounds. Please plan accordingly and allow yourself plenty of time to park and transport your items.

10. For all on-site contests, contestants must be present to win, unless they are on the fairgrounds participating in another live Fair contest at award presentation time. Contestant must notify Culinary staff at check-in if they may be absent at award presentation due to another contest.

14. A recipe may not be used in more than one contest; i.e., a pecan pie cannot be entered on pie day and the same recipe entered again in the Pearson Farm Pecan Recipe contest.

JUDGING

26. Every effort is made to obtain qualified and impartial judges. In Culinary, that means people who know how to judge food items based on what the scorecard calls for. Scorecards demand that judges be as objective as possible when testing food.

27. The decision of the judges will be final.

PREMIUMS

28. All premium money will be paid from the judges' record sheets and not from ribbons that may be attached to exhibits. NOTE: Due to increased administrative costs, exhibitors who place and earn less than $20 total in premiums will receive a ribbon, but will not be issued a check.

Friday, October 7, 5:00 PM - 10:00 PM Saturday, October 8, 9:00 AM - 8:00 PM

The Georgia Cooks Who Care Charity Bake Sale will again take place as a part of the 2022 Georgia Living Program. Though we were unable to hold the bake sale in 2021 due to Covid, as a result of exhibitors' generosity, over $900 was raised for charity at the last sale held in 2019. On Friday, October 7, and continuing Saturday, October 8 (or as long as they last), a bake sale of items entered in competition will be held in the Culinary Department. Proceeds will benefit Meals on Wheels.

While there is no open food allowed in the exhibit building, patrons can choose to eat their bake sale items in the designated area or take them outside of the building to enjoy.

Recipe Format Tips

- Type or print legibly. Winning recipes may be used in a future edition of the Georgia National Fair Blue Ribbon Cookbook.
- List all ingredients in order of use in ingredients list.
- Include container sizes, for example, 16 oz. pkg. or 20 oz. can.
- Use standard abbreviations for measurements.
- Keep directions in paragraph form - not in numbered steps.
- Use names of ingredients in the directions, for example, "Combine flour and sugar." DO NOT use statements like "Combine first three ingredients."
- Include temperatures and cooking, chilling, baking, and/or freezing times.
- Be consistent in the spelling of your name for each recipe you enter (Do not enter some as Joyce B. Jones and some as Joyce Jones or Joy Jones).
- Remember to bring two typed copies of your recipe on 8 1/2 x 11 paper. Do not laminate.
- Make sure your name, address, telephone number, and the name of the contest are printed clearly on the back of each recipe. Division and Class numbers should be included for baking contests.

Examples of standard abbreviations:

pt. = pint

qt. = quart

pkg. = package

env. = envelope

c. = cup

ctn. = carton

tsp. = teaspoon

T. = tablespoon

oz. = ounce

lb. = pound

gal. = gallon

doz. = dozen

sm. = small

md. = medium

lg. = large

Recipe Example:

My Favorite Apple Crisp

4 cups apples, cored and sliced

1/2 tsp cinnamon

1 Tbsp water

1 cup sugar

3/4 cups all purpose flour

1/8 tsp salt

1/2 cup (one stick) of cold butter

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Place sliced apples in 9x13 baking pan. Add cinnamon and water and stir to combine. In a medium bowl, add sugar, flour, and salt. Cut butter into small pieces. Mix into flour mixture with a fork or pastry blender until combined. Mixture should resemble coarse crumbs. Sprinkle dry mixture over apples. Bake about 1 hour, or until apples are tender.

A word about appearance vs. presentation: Judging on appearance means the judges will be looking at the food only; whether the food item exhibits "normal" properties, how it looks in the container and whether the individual portion looks appetizing on the plate. If the rules state an entry will be judged on presentation, this means the judges will also be looking at the serving dish and any other decorative item the contestant may choose to stimulate the appetite or express the theme of the dish.
