ELIGIBILITY

1. All exhibitors are required to read and abide by the Georgia National Fair General Rules And Regulations found at <https://www.georgianationalfair.com/p/georgialiving/finearts>. Culinary Rules also govern these competitions. PLEASE NOTE: IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO READ AND UNDERSTAND THE RULES. If you have questions, you may certainly e-mail us at: contests@gnfa.com.

Please help us prevent entry disqualifications.

2. The basic rules of food safety must be followed. All meat, fish, poultry, milk, egg, and vegetable dishes must be kept cold (below 40 degrees F) or hot (above 140 degrees F). This means that ice chests or other insulated containers must be used when transporting or holding food. There will be no access to electricity available at the Fairgrounds. Hair must be covered or secured. Gloves must be worn when handling food. Gloves will be provided for live contests, if needed. For information on food safety, contact your County Extension Agent.

3. Cooking contests are open to amateurs and to professionals unless stated otherwise in a contest. Exhibitors must decide under which category they will enter. Professionals, along with amateurs who have reached the highest level of cooking arts, should enter the "OPEN" Division; i.e., past sweepstakes winners or winners of multiple first place ribbons. Contestants who accumulate 15 blue ribbons over a 5 year period will be automatically moved up to the Open Division. Officials reserve the right to move entries up if warranted.

4. For live contests, unless there is a Youth Division listed, contestants must have reached their 16th birthday by October 1, 2022.

5. Exhibitors ages 12-18 enter in the Youth Baking Divisions. Young cooks must have reached their twelfth birthday before October 1, 2022, to compete, unless stated otherwise in a contest.

6. Unless otherwise stated in individual contest information, online registration will end at 11:59 PM 3 days before the receiving date, or 3 days before the contest date for live contests.

7. Pre-registration is strongly recommended.

8. For live contests, entries arriving after the stated end of receiving time will have an automatic 10 point deduction and still must be in place before judges enter the judging area. For contests with presentation, entry must be placed by the time stated for placing. All contestants must be out of the judging area before stated start of judging time. Dishes not registered and in place before judging begins will not be judged.

9. Please be aware - to keep traffic moving, the Georgia State Patrol may direct you to an area other than the West parking lot to park. You may have to transport your entry across the fair grounds. Please plan accordingly and allow yourself plenty of time to park and transport your items.

10. For all on-site contests, contestants must be present to win, unless they are on the fairgrounds participating in another live Fair contest at award presentation time. Contestant must notify Culinary staff at check-in if they may be absent at award presentation due to another contest.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

11. Contestants may enter as many Classes as they wish, but only two entries per Class.

12. All entries must be submitted on the official entry form of the Georgia National Fair or through the online entry process. Entry must include title of recipe; e.g., "Grandma's Chocolate Pecan Pie", not "Pecan Contest".

13. A recipe may not be submitted more than once from the same kitchen i.e., the same recipe may not be submitted by more than one member of the same family, or from more than one student from a school class, or by the same exhibitor at more than one Fair.

14. A recipe may not be used in more than one contest; i.e., a pecan pie cannot be entered on pie day and the same recipe entered again in the Pearson Farm Pecan Recipe contest.

15. For all Culinary entries, baking and on-site contests, TWO TYPED COPIES OF THE RECIPE ON 8 1/2X11 SHEETS OF PAPER MUST ACCOMPANY EACH ENTRY. Do not laminate recipes. Recipe must follow the suggested recipe format. ALL RECIPES BECOME THE PROPERTY OF THE GEORGIA NATIONAL FAIR AND CANNOT BE RETURNED. Winning recipes may be included in a future edition of the Georgia National Fair Blue Ribbon Cookbook.

16. The contestant's name, address, telephone number, and the name of the contest must be printed clearly on the back of each recipe. Division and Class numbers must be included for baking contests.

17. Present a copy of your entry form (or online confirmation if pre-registered) along with your baked goods or contest dish to the personnel at the west doors of the Miller-Murphy-Howard Building or at any TICKET GATE and you will be permitted to enter. Anyone not participating in the competition must purchase an entrance ticket.

18. All Culinary entries, Baking Entries and on-site contest dishes, must be delivered to the Miller-Murphy-Howard Building.

19. Baked entries must be on thin board or paper plates with the exception of pies, which must be in disposable pie tins; no responsibility will be taken for contestants' dishes. Entries must be covered.

20. For on-site contests, dishes must be picked up immediately after winners' announcements. GNF will not be responsible for any dishes left after the winners' announcements.

21. Except for the Mix Tricks category in Cakes, no mixes or pre-made doughs are allowed in the baking categories.

22. All culinary entries become property of the Fair and will not be returned.

23. Baking entries not designated for the charity bake sale will be disposed of.

24. Unless stated otherwise, all dishes must be prepared prior to arrival at the Fair.

25. Except for the contests judged on presentation, contestants will not be allowed to "place" their entry.

No presentation elements will be allowed beyond the serving dish. Any sauces or condiments must be applied to the dish before turning in for judging. All components of the dish must fit on the serving plate or bowl.

JUDGING

26. Every effort is made to obtain qualified and impartial judges. In Culinary, that means people who know how to judge food items based on what the scorecard calls for. Scorecards demand that judges be as objective as possible when testing food.

27. The decision of the judges will be final.

PREMIUMS

28. All premium money will be paid from the judges' record sheets and not from ribbons that may be attached to exhibits. NOTE: Due to increased administrative costs, exhibitors who place and earn less than $20 total in premiums will receive a ribbon, but will not be issued a check.

29. Award of Excellence Rosette and $25 may be awarded in each Division in Culinary Baking.

30. Sweepstakes Plaque and $25 may be presented to the Georgia Champion Junior Cook - winner of the most blue ribbons in the Youth Culinary Divisions.

The Cindy Noble Memorial Award will be presented to the Adult Culinary Sweepstakes winner.

31. Winners' ribbons will be available during regular exhibit release Tues. & Wed., Oct. 18 & 19.

32. Premium checks totaling $20 or more will be mailed within six weeks after the Fair is over.

Friday, October 7, 5:00 PM - 10:00 PM Saturday, October 8, 9:00 AM - 8:00 PM

The Georgia Cooks Who Care Charity Bake Sale will again take place as a part of the 2022 Georgia Living Program. Though we were unable to hold the bake sale in 2021 due to Covid, as a result of exhibitors' generosity, over $900 was raised for charity at the last sale held in 2019. On Friday, October 7, and continuing Saturday, October 8 (or as long as they last), a bake sale of items entered in competition will be held in the Culinary Department. Proceeds will benefit Meals on Wheels.

While there is no open food allowed in the exhibit building, patrons can choose to eat their bake sale items in the designated area or take them outside of the building to enjoy.

Recipe Format Tips

- Type or print legibly. Winning recipes may be used in a future edition of the Georgia National Fair Blue Ribbon Cookbook.
- List all ingredients in order of use in ingredients list.
- Include container sizes, for example, 16 oz. pkg. or 20 oz. can.
- Use standard abbreviations for measurements.
- Keep directions in paragraph form - not in numbered steps.
- Use names of ingredients in the directions, for example, "Combine flour and sugar." DO NOT use statements like "Combine first three ingredients."
- Include temperatures and cooking, chilling, baking, and/or freezing times.
- Be consistent in the spelling of your name for each recipe you enter (Do not enter some as Joyce B. Jones and some as Joyce Jones or Joy Jones).
- Remember to bring two typed copies of your recipe on 8 1/2 x 11 paper. Do not laminate.
- Make sure your name, address, telephone number, and the name of the contest are printed clearly on the back of each recipe. Division and Class numbers should be included for baking contests.

Examples of standard abbreviations:

pt. = pint
qt. = quart
pkg. = package
env. = envelope
c. = cup

ctn. = carton
tsp. = teaspoon
T. = tablespoon
oz. = ounce
lb. = pound

gal. = gallon
doz. = dozen
sm. = small
md. = medium
lg. = large

Recipe Example:

My Favorite Apple Crisp

4 cups apples, cored and sliced
1/2 tsp cinnamon
1 Tbsp water
1 cup sugar
3/4 cups all purpose flour
1/8 tsp salt
1/2 cup (one stick) of cold butter

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Place sliced apples in 9x13 baking pan. Add cinnamon and water and stir to combine. In a medium bowl, add sugar, flour, and salt. Cut butter into small pieces. Mix into flour mixture with a fork or pastry blender until combined. Mixture should resemble coarse crumbs. Sprinkle dry mixture over apples. Bake about 1 hour, or until apples are tender.

A word about appearance vs. presentation: Judging on appearance means the judges will be looking at the food only; whether the food item exhibits "normal" properties, how it looks in the container and whether the individual portion looks appetizing on the plate. If the rules state an entry will be judged on presentation, this means the judges will also be looking at the serving dish and any other decorative item the contestant may choose to stimulate the appetite or express the theme of the dish.

The appearance of the food will be considered as part of the presentation.

Pearson Farm is a 5th generation farm that has been growing peaches and pecans in the same dirt for over 135 years. We are located in Fort Valley, Georgia where we farm approximately 1600 acres of peaches and 2800 acres of pecans. Farming has changed dramatically over the last 100 years but the core elements remain - good soil, hard work, honest dealings, family and faith - all of which have been critical to the survival and success of Pearson Farm. We are blessed with a strong family, honored to have friends, happy to have visitors and committed to providing good things in good measure. We hope you will visit us whenever and however you can. All taco entries must be pre-registered and recipes submitted by September 28, 2022. Recipes must be emailed to contests@gnfa.com.

Twelve finalists will be selected from the recipes. Time slots will be drawn at registration.

Taco: a crispy or soft corn or wheat tortilla that is folded or rolled and stuffed with a mixture (as of seasoned meat, cheese, and lettuce) ALSO - the perfect easy meal to make on a Tuesday night! Thought to have originated in Mexico, according to Merriam-Webster, the first known use of the word was in 1901. Today's tacos can be filled with anything from the traditional seasoned beef to chicken or sausage or fish.

For this contest, you will be required to use a traditional hard or soft tortilla taco "shell", but the filling is "anything goes". Cooks will bring all of their ingredients and necessary dishes and supplies and prepare at least 4 tacos on site. Georgia National Fair will supply a stove and an approximately 30x48 inch space for presentation. Basic food safety practices must be followed. Plastic gloves will be provided if needed.

Open to individuals or teams of two - teams can consist of either 2 adults or 1 adult and 1 child who is at least 8 years of age. Contestants will compete six at a time, in two (45 min.) heats and prepare their tacos before the judges in a live setting. Ingredients must be prepped on site. Time slots will be drawn at registration. Only one person per team will be allowed at the stove at a time. The stove and judging area are not adjacent. Be prepared to transport your dish from the stove up to 50 feet to a table.

Participants will be asked to create a display which includes the serving dish and one plated serving. Judges will sample from the serving dish without disturbing the plate. Contestants will provide any dishes, taco stands, place settings, etc., and presentation must represent the featured theme of "Taco Tuesday" or reflect the theme of the filling (chicken, fish, etc.). Contestants will have 45 minutes to prepare their dish, complete their presentation and leave the judging area. Judging will begin at as dishes are completed or 45 minutes after start time and will not be delayed for incomplete presentations. Prep/stove area must be cleaned before judging of your dish will begin.

NOTE: Presentation is part of the judging score card.

Creativity/originality.....25%
Cleanliness of Prep/Judging Area.....10%

Ramen noodles have become a staple for college students and cooks on a budget and are now all the rage on YouTube and TikTok. Your challenge is to create a dish that serves at least four people using 2 packages of ramen noodles. Your offering can be a stir fry, casserole, main dish, appetizer or dessert - use your imagination - what we are not looking for is another bowl of noodle soup. Creativity is key.

Open to individuals or teams of two - teams can consist of either 2 adults or 1 adult and 1 child who is at least 8 years of age.

Recipes must be emailed to contests@gnfa.com. Twelve finalists will be selected from the recipes. Time slots will be drawn at registration.

The Georgia National Fair will provide 2 packages of ramen noodles (specific flavor not guaranteed) and the use of a stove. The contestants will provide their own pots/pans, mixing bowl, utensils, and other ingredients.

Contestants will compete six at a time, in two heats and prepare their dishes before the judges in a live setting. The first six contestants will start at 10:45 and have a maximum of 60 minutes to prepare their dish and clean their work area for judging.

Ingredients must be prepped on site.

Basic food safety practices must be followed. Plastic gloves will be provided if needed.

Only one person per team will be allowed at the stove at a time. The stove and judging area are not adjacent. Be prepared to transport your dish from the stove up to 50 feet to a table.

Prep/stove area must be cleaned before judging of your dish will begin.

Contestants will not be allowed to “place” their entries, so please do not bring decorative items. Presentation is not a part of the judging score card.

The first known recipe for banana pudding was published in Good Housekeeping in 1888. It consisted of bananas and custard layered with sponge cake and topped with whipped cream. Through the years the dish has evolved to include different cakes and cookies, meringues in place of the cream, and finally the vanilla wafer. Nabisco first published their official recipe on the Nilla Wafer box in the 1940s and the now southern traditional dessert can be found in variations too many to count.

This is an OPEN contest. Georgia residents 8 and older may participate.

For this contest, participants must bring their best banana pudding - any flavor or style - that includes real bananas. The dessert must feed at least 4 people.

No presentation elements will be allowed beyond the serving dish. Any sauces or condiments must be applied to the dish before turning in for judging. All components of the dish must fit on the serving plate or bowl.
