In accordance with state law, the Committee will not comment or otherwise consider Public Comment matters until and unless such items have been properly noticed for a future meeting.
- V. NEW BUSINESS
  - 1. AUCTION PROPOSAL: Adam Boles was invited to share his online auction proposal, which would include the local auctioneers. Adam also came to ask the JLA why they voted to bring Jake Parnell's Auction company and EZ2Bid.com. He proposed utilizing DV Auctions coupled with utilizing local auctioneers. Adam Boles shared that DV Auction was roughly $3000.00 to $3300.00 for six hours. His proposal would feature DV Auction as the online platform and the local auctioneers handle the in person. He was also seeking clarification as to why the committee voted the way they did, in terms of using Jake Parnell's auction company and EZ2Bid.com.
Staci Alves shared that the decision was not one made lightly, and the committee made it at the time due to rise in COVID. The decision was made in December when our COVID numbers were on the rise. Matt Schager expressed his concern regarding the decision as well, he was not in agreement with the committee regarding using EZ2Bid.com. Staci Alves asked if this could be revisited after the fair and have Adam submit a bid for the auction. Due to the time constraints with fair be less than 80 days away the decision would be final for this year. Adam Boles asked if CEO Bartels would provide a clear outline of what was expected for the bid. CEO Bartels agreed to provide that information.
  - 2. AUCTION TASK LIST: The committee completed the Auction Task list for the remaining unassigned tasks. Janice Lohse agreed to help recruit photographer helpers.
Sales Clerks: CEO Bartels stated she had asked Cindy Montes and was waiting to hear back. Christine Kampmann stated she would ask Dana from her office if she would help again. CEO Bartels reported that she had asked Lisa Humpreys from Farm Bureau to help with buyers registration, however she hadn't heard back.
Auction Runners, Christine Kampmann stated that the 4-H office would help get sign up for that done. Runway workers, Candice Pierce offered to help find people to help. Buyers Breakfast, Elenitas would do the burritos again, CEO Bartels would call and place the order. Candice Pierce offered to help organize snacks. Need to find helpers to restock and clean periodically. Elk Creek FFA and Core Butte FFA agreed to help monitor trash during the sale. Auction Gifts/Hats, Mat Schager agreed to help order them. The committee agreed that 550 to 600 hats would be sufficient.
  - 3. TASK LIST Some of the Non-Auction task were discussed. Judges and clerks for Lg & Sm Animal Showmanship, Clay Carlson offered to help with.

PeeWee showmanship, Kendra Beams and the office interns will help. Announcer for Beef Show, Clay Carlson agreed, the other classes need an announcer. Any classes that still needed announcer if Kendra Beams would help wherever needs

4. PENS: CEO Bartels informed the committee that all the pens had arrived and the barns were almost done. Needed a little more dirt, and packing then they would be ready to go. She also wanted to move forward with getting the panels up to see logistically how they would work as well as having enough pens.
5. PHOTOGRAPHY: The committee reviewed the bids for photography, the committee agreed that they would like to have someone with livestock photography experience. Staci Alves made a motion to choose Lacy Ann Photography, due to her experience shooting livestock shows and fairs. Mat Schager seconded the motion. All committee members voted in favor of using Lacy Ann Photography for the fair, no votes against.

VI. OLD BUSINESS

1. AUCTION ADD-ONS: CEO Bartels reported that ShoWorks was still using Paypal as the only for of payment, which is not a form that the fair is comfortable with using. The contact at ShoWorks stated that there may be an additional payment platform coming soon. The committee asked to just keep checking back in with that. Also, Geoff Bittle stated that he would like to see add-ons open for 3 to 4 days following the fair. CEO Bartels pointed out that our Data Entry clerks leave on Monday to go to another fair, and they are the ones that set up and print the checks for us. CEO Bartels stated that she would investigate further the options with the Data Entry clerk and discuss if this would work.
2. BARNs: CEO Bartels stated that she would like to have some painting done, and all-around sprucing of the barns. Some paint on the bleachers and barn poles. Janice Lohse volunteered the Hamilton City FFA crew to paint the poles in the barns white to cover where the permanent pens were removed. The fair would provide the paint and lunch for them.
